U-KNIGHTED

1994 Excalibur

North Henderson High School

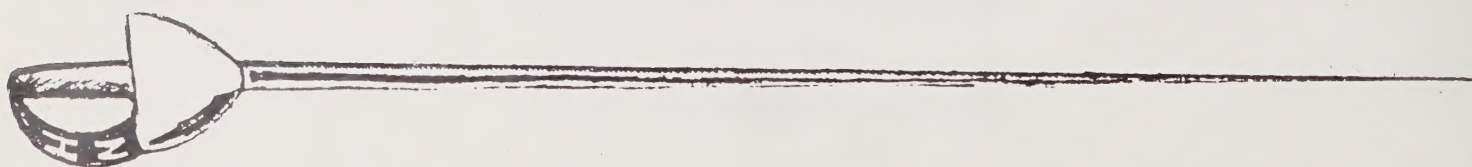

35 Fruitland Road
Hendersonville, NC 28792
697-4500
Student Population: 645

Our symbol of pride and honor: the KNIGHT. Jon Hoffman, a terrific mascot, showed a lot of school spirit and was always able to get the crowd motivated.

Although the members of the cheerleading squads came from many different schools, they showed true KNIGHT spirit through their dedication.

North Henderson's first volleyball team set new traditions with a winning record of 22-1. The team's members and coach were from three different schools, but they pulled together and by the end of the season felt like true NORTH KNIGHTS!

U-Knighted

In '94

From many different backgrounds with many varied interests, they came together as one. The transition was difficult, but at 35 Fruitland Road there are no longer any East Eagles, West Falcons, Hendersonville Bearcats, or Edneyville Yellow Jackets. NORTH KNIGHTS were created through dedication and hard work. The Knights were formed with a common goal of unity in mind. Each student at North played a role in creating the closeness the students of North experienced. Cooperation between the students and the faculty and the determination of the students and faculty were of extreme importance to the success of North Henderson High School's first year of operation.

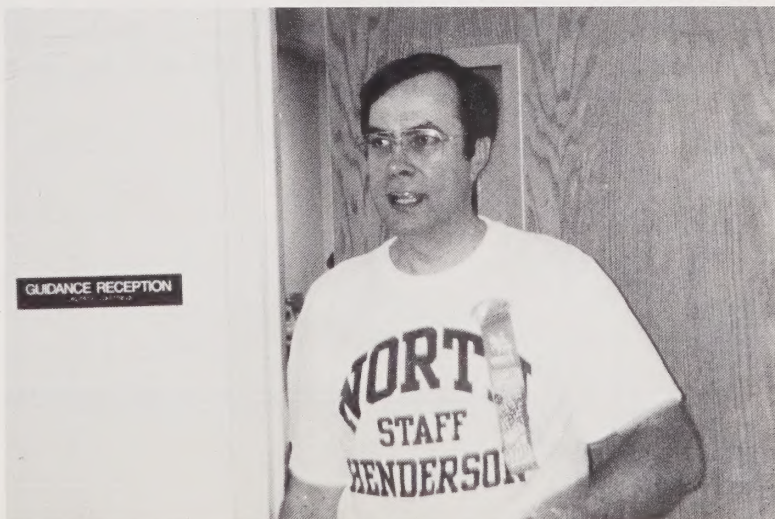

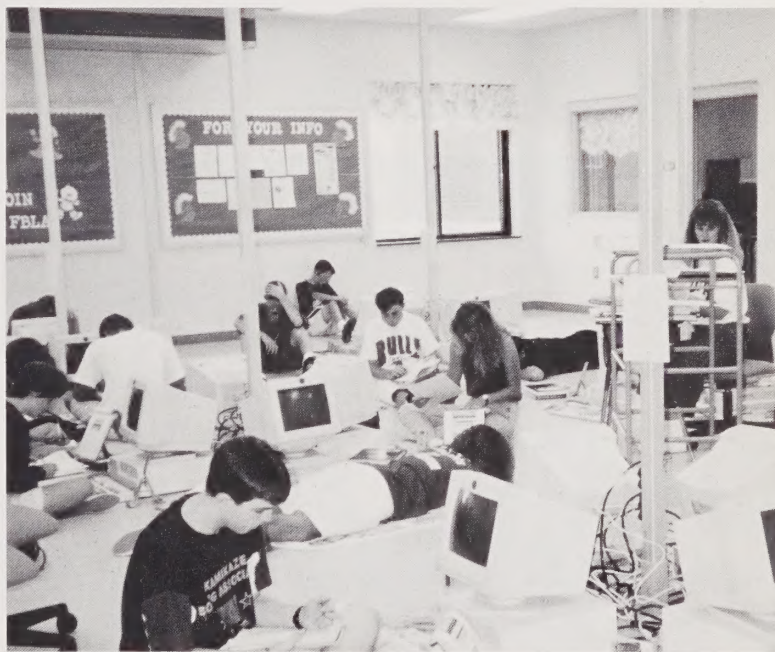

North Henderson's junior class was yet another example of the mixture of North. Natara Beddingfield, Heather King, Amy Robinson, and Sabrina Cairnes made quick friendships with one another.

The typing classes were some of the classes that had a rough start. Their equipment and tables were slow arriving to the school, but the students adjusted to the conditions quickly.

The band of North Henderson had members from many different places yet they were able to pull together and receive superior ratings at band competitions.

Mr. Thomas, former principal of Edneyville, was appointed principal at North. He expressed a lot of school spirit by supporting the classes and sports teams of North.

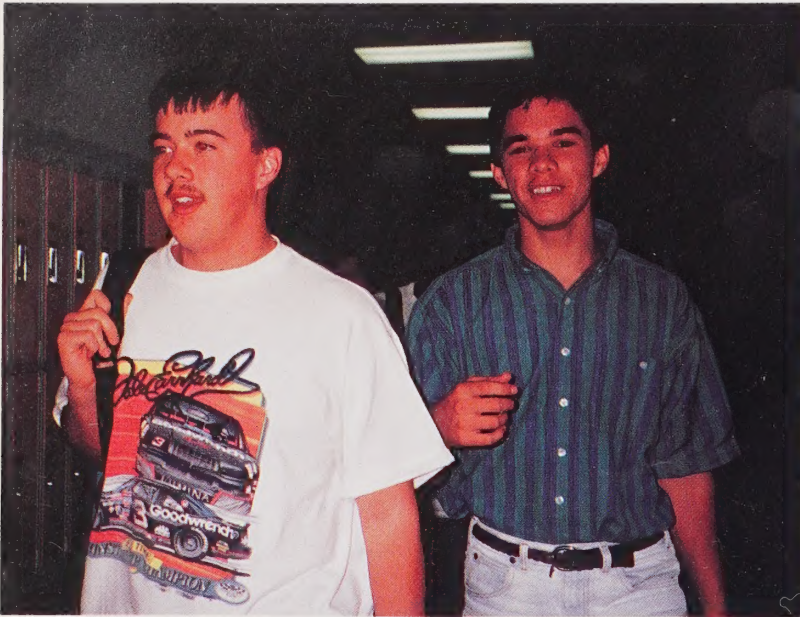

U-Knighted

All Four
As One!

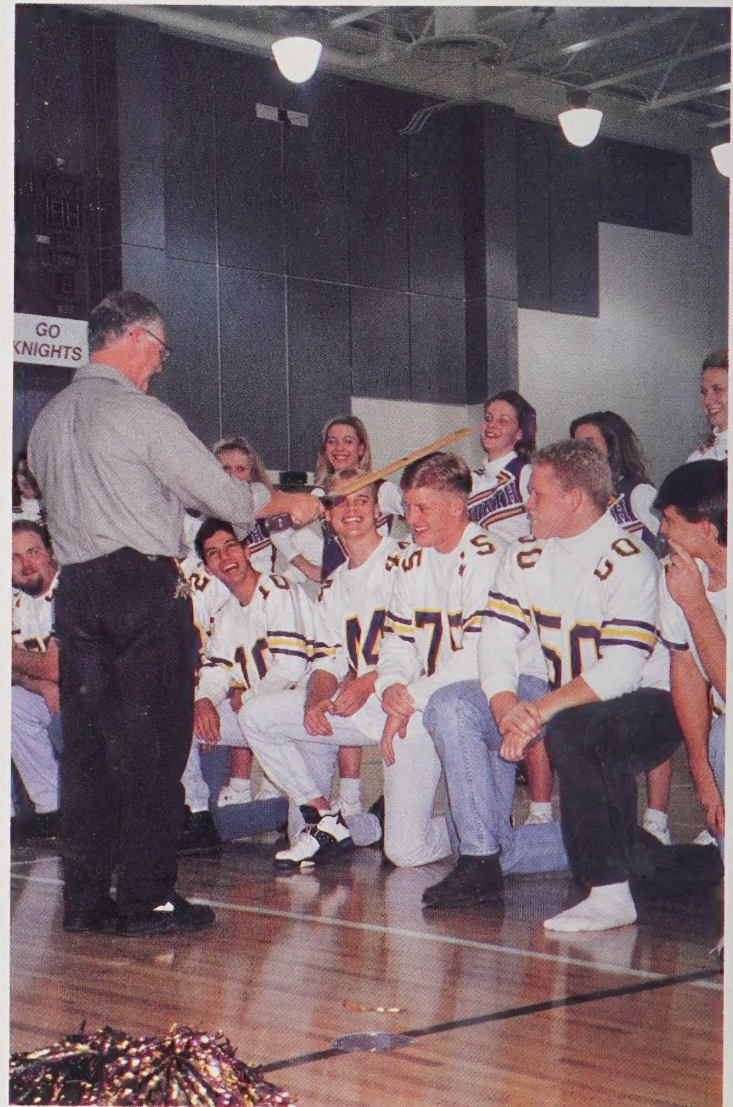

Friendships made at North, like that between Jason Case & Randy Cox, will affect the lives of the students for many years.

With faithful KNIGHT fans like this, what sports team couldn't get pumped up? The excited fans helped every North team push a little harder for their victories.

The JV cheerleaders worked hard on the murals for the football players to bust through at the beginning of the games. These girls helped the crowds come alive with KNIGHT spirit.

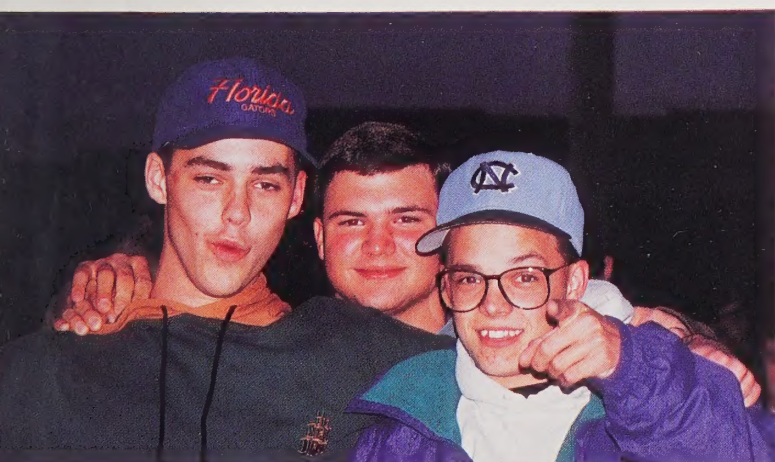

Coach Cumbo knighted the senior football players at the last football pep rally. Each senior became a Sir KNIGHT!

Class of 1994

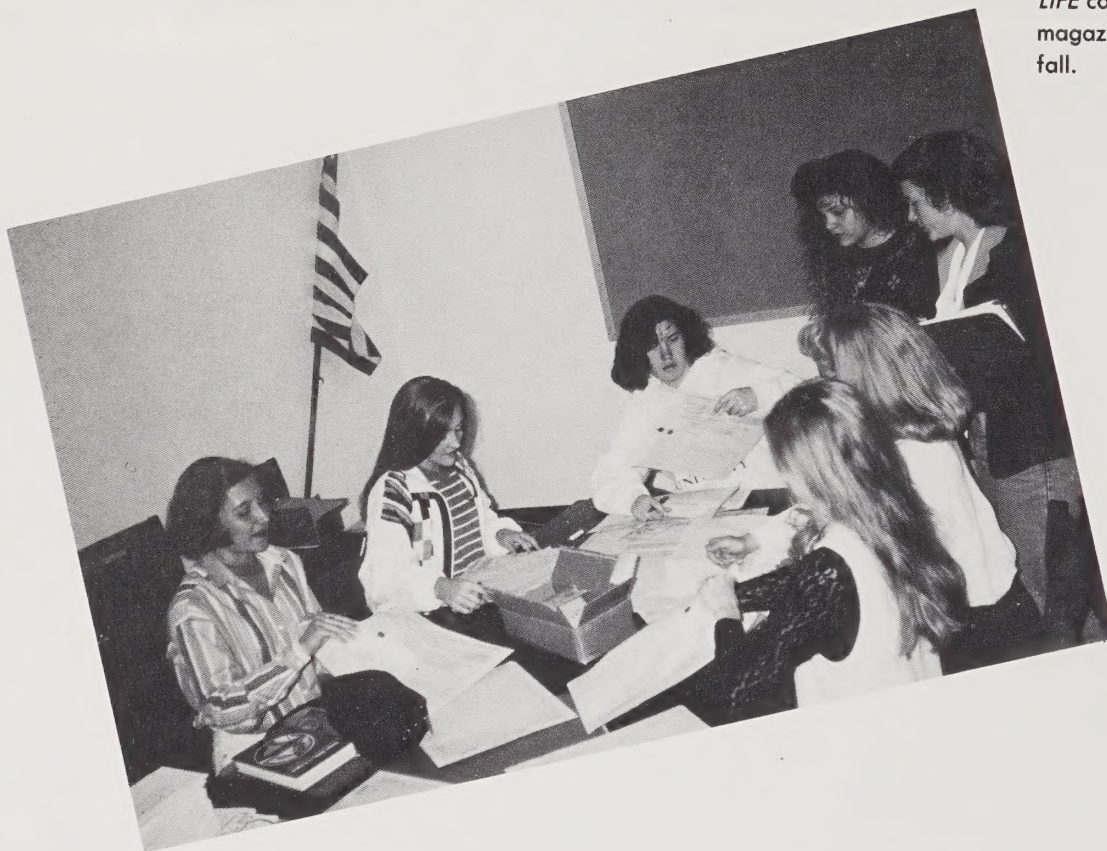

Kristin Milligan, Heather Ford, and Tracy Veach worked with the HOSA club the night of the bonfire to provide refreshments for the students. The clubs of the school played a big part in pulling the students together for common goals.

Josh Poore, Kurt Merrell, and Shane Habitzruther came from different parts of the county, but were soon U-Knighted under their common NORTH pride.

Class treasurers and the student body treasurer spent many hours of their KNIGHT LIFE counting money for the magazine drive held this past fall.

Heather King's, Natara Beddingfield's, and LaShay Coates' KNIGHT LIVES included sports and the close friendships they shared with one another.

KNIGHT LIFE

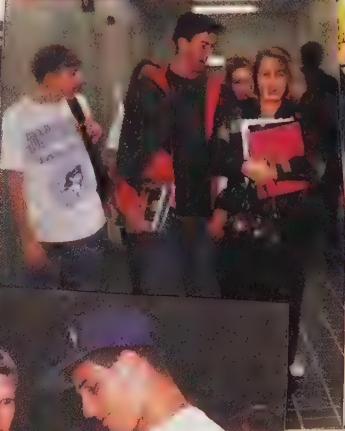

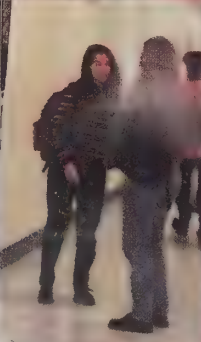

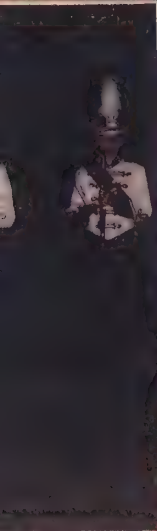

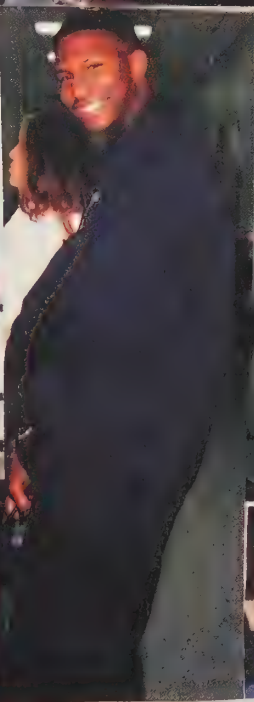

KNIGHT LIFE wasn't all fun and games. Kristin Loftis takes time to smile for the camera as she hurries to her locker between classes.

Sports made up a large part of the KNIGHT LIFE at North Henderson. The teams worked many hard hours during practice and games.

Spirit Week

The first homecoming at North was full of excitement and fun. Everyone wanted to show that they had the most spirit. Class color day started the week with seniors in blue, juniors in red, sophomores in green and freshmen in yellow. Clash day on Wednesday was a big hit as the students dressed up in their tackiest clothes.

Many great memories were created this year. Students will never forget Doug Barnwell finding the spirit stick, the cheerleaders at the powder puff game, and of course the rope breaking at the tug of war.

This year's spirit week started North's tradition off right. Even though the week was a lot of hard work, it helped fill the days with tons of fun.

"Staceyanna" Brackett shows us his feminine side at the Powder Puff game. Stacey collected the most money and was crowned Powder Puff queen.

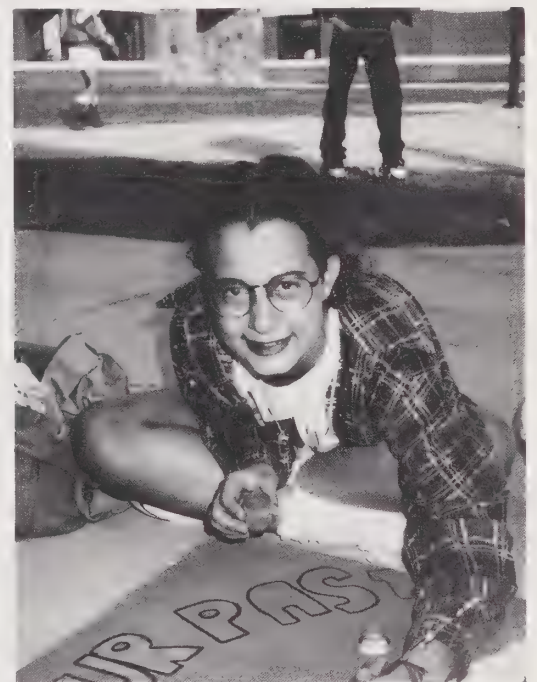

One of the Homecoming Spirit Days was clash day. Erica Corn and Brandy Hammond show their "bad taste."

Ms. Hill and her Advanced Biology class show their spirit on hat, tie and shades day by posing for the camera.

This "classic" decorated the front of our school during homecoming week. This car was used for the car bash, in which you would pay a dollar to hit the car three times. All the money raised went to the Student Council.

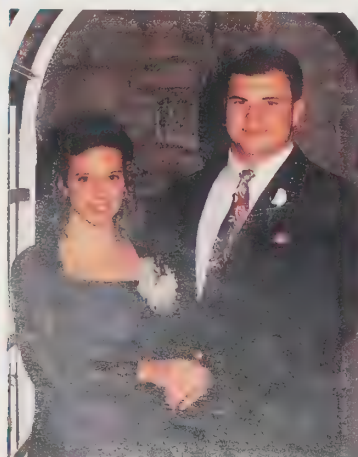

Seniors from Ms. Edwards English class wear their favorite college clothing for college day. This was a very popular dress-up day during homecoming week.

James Short gives helpful advice to a player. James was the Senior/Freshman coach at the Powder Puff game.

Every class had to paint a mural for homecoming week. Tracy Nunziato works very hard on the Junior mural. The Sophomores won this competition with their unique mural.

Marsha Jenkins and Heather Hall ride in the Senior Parade with the North Henderson Knight. John Hoffman was chosen to be the first mascot of North Henderson.

Friends From the Start

Having to switch to North Henderson this year was a big move for a lot of students. Most people had to leave their best friends behind and come to a strange, new place and make new friends. It was hard for each person to put everything in the past, but it seemed everyone did a good job of making new friends and getting along.

Tina Spivey and Heather Hall clown around in the halls during fifth period!

Are these friends ever separated? This lunch-bunch was always together.

This senior group stuck together to play Powder Puff football during Spirit Week.

Cara, Regina, Cindy, Resa, and April hang in the commons area during lunch.

Looks like Jessi Eurich and Gwangi Green have a very friendly relationship!

Becky Linder and Melissa Beddingfield lean on each other when they need a friend.

Every Knight needs a loyal steed to ride. Juniors Shannon Hare, Cameron Lamb, Amanda Pressley, and Rachel Lyda all think their Mustangs have plenty of power under the hood.

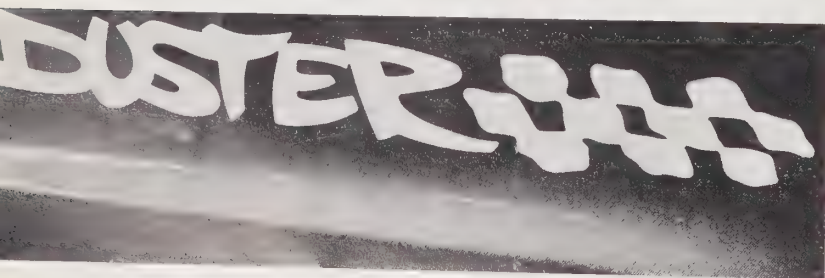

Living Life in the Fast Lane

We've been waiting sixteen years for the moment to be able to DRIVE — legally, that is. It doesn't matter if you have a brand new corvette or a beat up old clunker. If it glows, you glow.

Our parking lot consisted of everything from classics to contemporary autos. With pride and joy we hopped into our cars (and trucks) to hit the roads every afternoon.

Along with this new found freedom came the responsibility to drive safely. The state DOT added another traffic light on Chimney Rock Highway early in the fall to ensure we slowed down. Even so, we still had a few students who had aspirations of being the next Dale Earnhardt or Mark Martin.

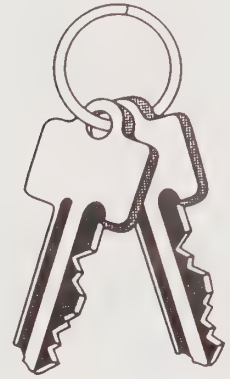

Fortunately, or unfortunately whichever the case, law enforcement officers patrolled to cut down on qualifying at the North Henderson motor-speedway.

Eat my dust!!

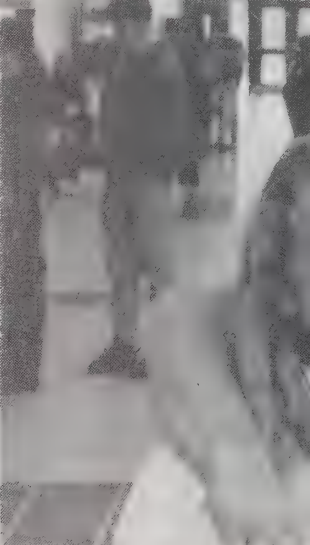

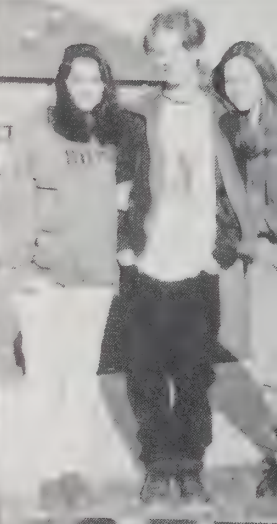

It's cute, it's bad, it's even red, but Rose Flores doesn't let it go to her head.

Mark McGraw's ST-truck is low to the ground and wired for sound.

Katrina Taylor tries to beat the afternoon rush by putting the pedal to the metal.

A very special part of being a couple are the romantic evenings spent together. Erica Corn and Randy Deaton intend to make the most of this very special date.

Whenever Mike needed someone to lean on, he knew Donna would be there for him. Couples always shared a special bond that united them.

Are these two ever apart? Brent Nix and Lesley West, like most couples try to see each other as often as they can.

Their smiles say it all! Judging by the expressions on their faces, it is safe to assume that Kevin Stipe and Melanie Swofford are very happy together.

UNITY

Cameron and Ginny take time in between classes to share a few minutes together. If a couple didn't have classes together, the few moments shared between classes were very precious.

Couples. Walking down the hall at North, at every turn you can see another couple. But have you ever wondered exactly what brought these two people together? In most cases it was a very special friendship that developed into a more personal unity. Whatever the case, the union of two people is something very special and most couples aren't afraid to let others know how much they care for each other.

"I want to hold your hand."

After a long day of school, Joey Smith and Shirl Baker finally get to spend some time together. The parking lot was a place where a lot of couples met before and after school.

Tia Polk and Dustin Smith snuggle tightly trying to keep warm during a football game. Sometimes the only thing to keep couples warm during cold weather was each other.

United on the soccer field, Kallie and Danen were first teammates before becoming an item.

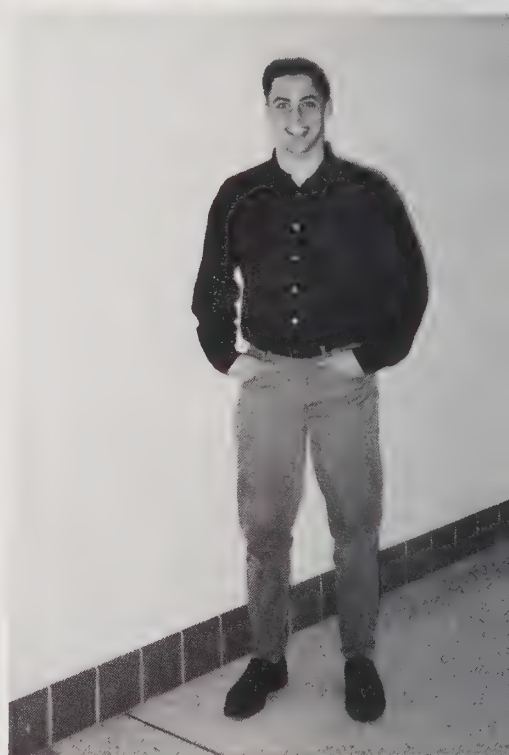

What's "In" . . .

This year was a typical year when it came to fashion. There were many diverse styles. This year flannel shirts were all the rage, along with army boots and many types of sandals. As usual there were many people who stuck with the more conservative silk shirts and jeans. Duckhead shirts were also popular. Many new styles of sweat shirts were seen this year, most picturing their favorite teams including the newly created Carolina Panthers.

During the cold winter months patterned sweaters were very popular. Students wore different patterns based on their personalities, the more unique the better. The new North letter jackets were a welcome addition to everyone's wardrobe. The varsity girl's basketball team has a style all its own. They wore their matching purple jackets before every game. Overall this was definitely one of the most interesting years in fashion.

Jennifer Garrett shows us her sense of style. Duckhead has always been a popular brand with the students.

Havilah Sherrill is one of the more unique dressers at North, she followed fads and sometimes she created her own.

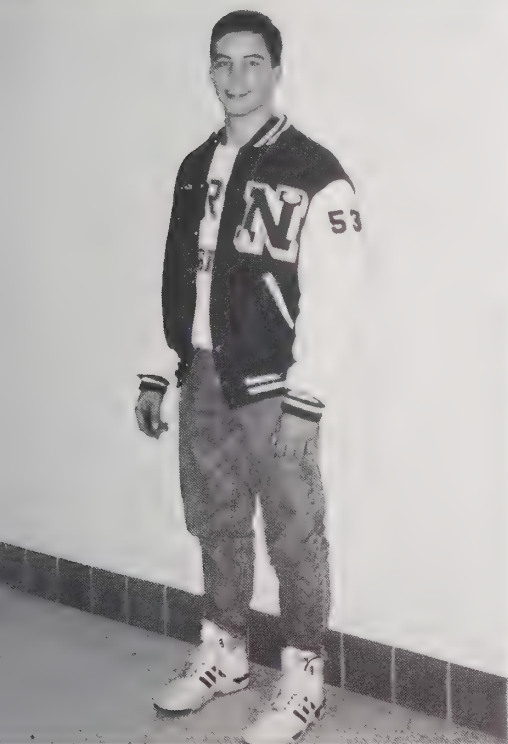

Cameron Sawtelle, a Junior is known for his good taste in fashion.

Some of the Varsity Girls Basketball team show off their new blazers. All the members of the team had a blazer to wear on game days.

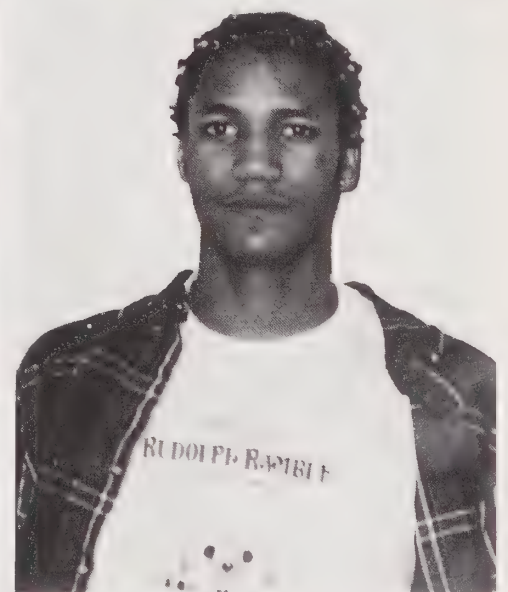

Christy Hodges wears one of the popular "Starter" jackets. The Chicago Bulls was a popular team to support.

Kevin Smith wears one of the new North Henderson letter jackets. These became a common sight in the halls of North.

Who's feet could these be? Todd Justus was known for his "Teva" sandals. These, as Todd shows us, can be worn throughout the year.

Time to Make the Donuts

Work: the ability to move. Yes, the definition is true, but many people have different meanings for the word. Some define work as the ability to move your arm from the popcorn bag to your mouth while watching a good movie, while others describe work to be a lot more complex.

Unfortunately, most working students at North Henderson define work as awful and especially hard to do while going to school almost everyday of the week. Many students hate working on the weekends, but they sure are happy when they do get a day's rest. A lot of these students are in Marketing Co-op which allows the student to leave school early to go to work while it teaches them responsibility and about life in the real world. During the school year, they have to keep up every class in order to get a credit for Marketing and for working.

Many students will tell you working isn't fun or easy, but hey, someone has to do it.

Cassettes, CD's, music videos, and more. Leslie Kittredge works at Camelot Music in the Blue Ridge Mall. As you can see, she loves her job or does she always smile?

Marsha Jenkins works at the World of Clothing as a cashier. She complains, "The only thing I hate about my job is that it's not busy during the week and I hate standing around."

Ginny Long works at the smaller section of Shelley's in the Blue Ridge Mall.

The World of Rugs! Travis Prince has worked really hard at the World of Clothing for 2 years as a rug sales person.

"Hello, how are you today?" As part of her job, Aliva Hoots greets each and every one of her customers at Ingle's on Four Season's Boulevard.

Just Another One of Those Days

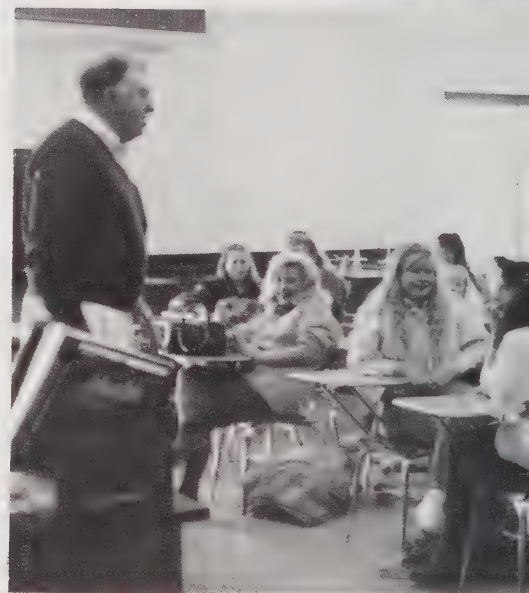

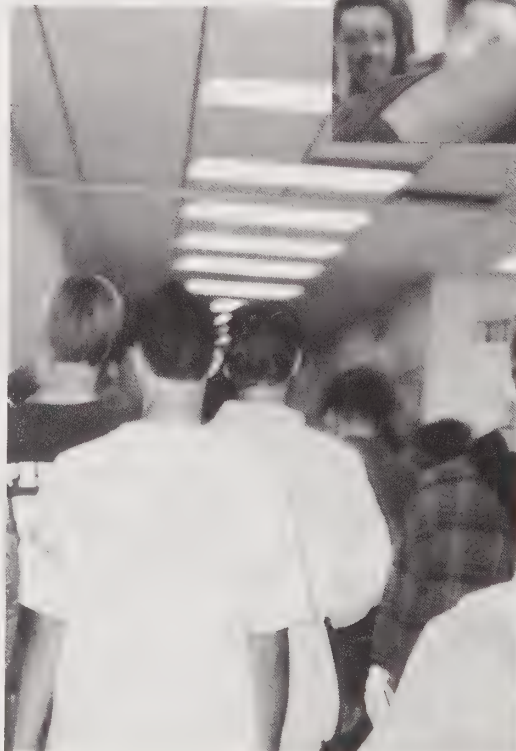

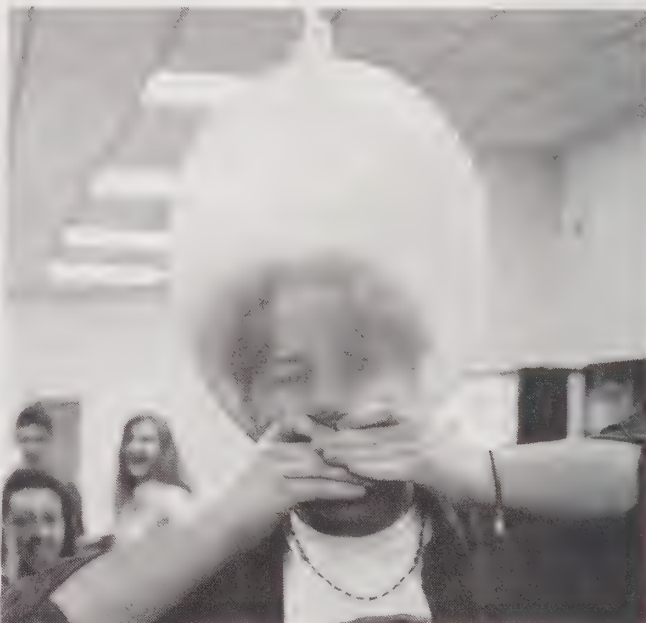

The life of a teenager is one filled with excitement and question. It could probably be summed up in one word: HECTIC. Our teenage years are supposed to be the best years of our life. Most of the students here at North would agree to that. We've had some rough times but we always seem to get through. School takes up most of the day, especially for those students who come early for meetings or help from teachers and stay late for practice or other activities. North Henderson has quickly become a "home away from home" whether we want it that way or not. After we finally leave good ole NHHS, we have to go home to do all that homework.

Although a high school in its infancy, NHHS offered multiple extracurricular activities. Some of them we did pretty great with (volleyball) and some were a little disappointing (football). We can honestly say that we are proud to have been the first class to start the Knightly traditions.

Ginger seems to be having bad hair day, so she decides to go back to sleep. Too bad we all can't do that.

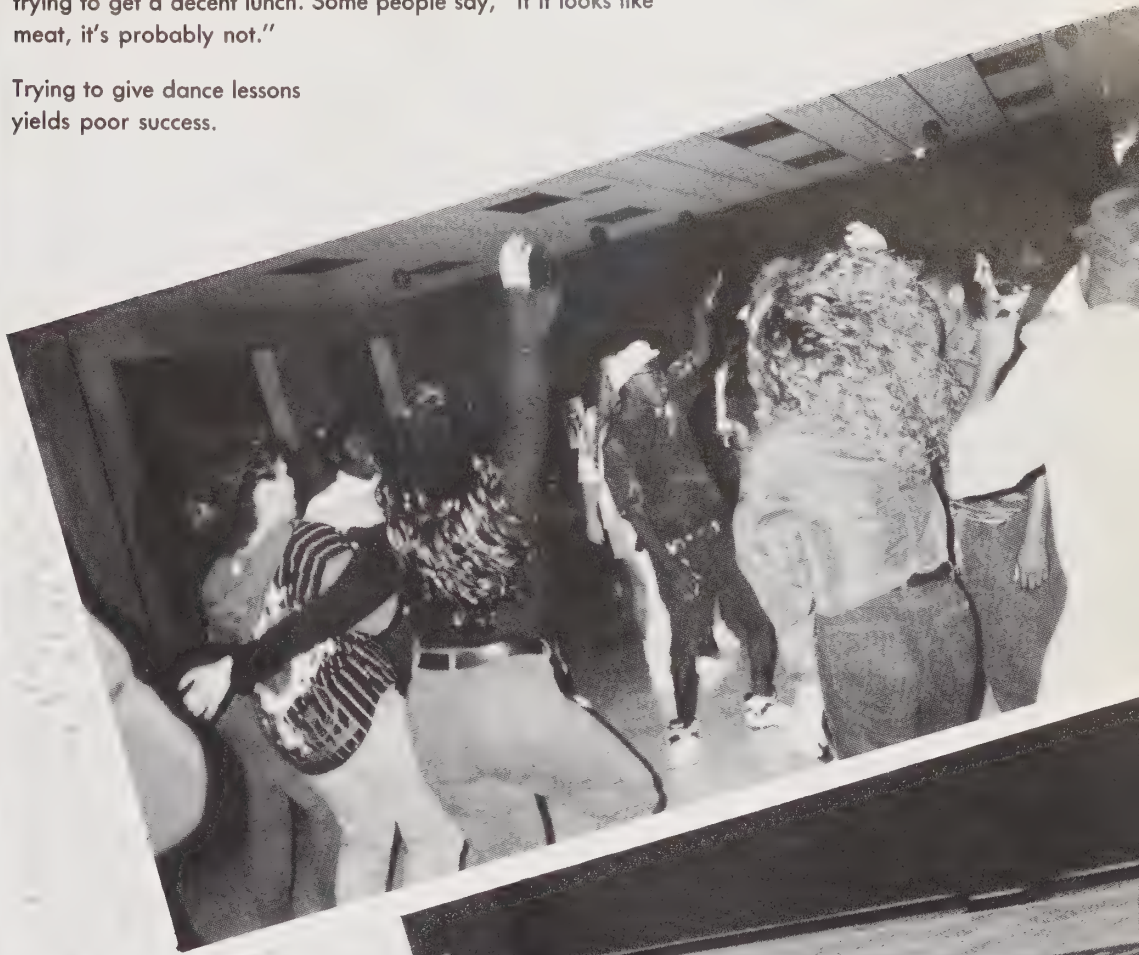

Atlanta's traffic jams at 5:00 p.m. are mild compared to North Henderson's hall congestion.

Jason Rhodes proves he's a real "air-head" and Bryan Tobey shows he's full of hot air.

Lunchtime! Everyone seems to be scrounging for chairs and trying to get a decent lunch. Some people say, "If it looks like meat, it's probably not."

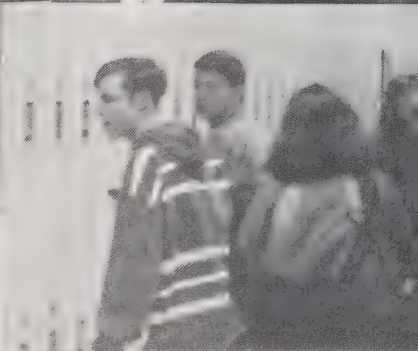

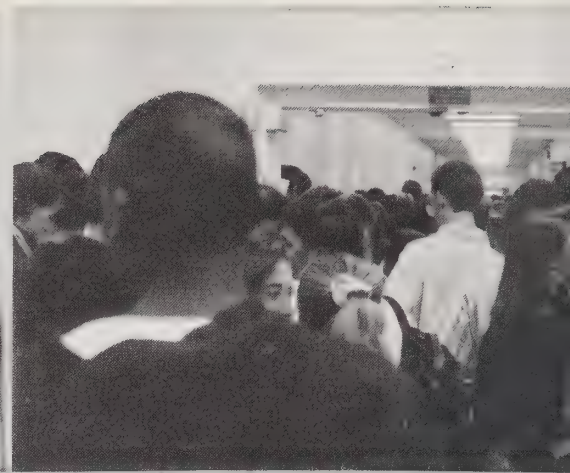

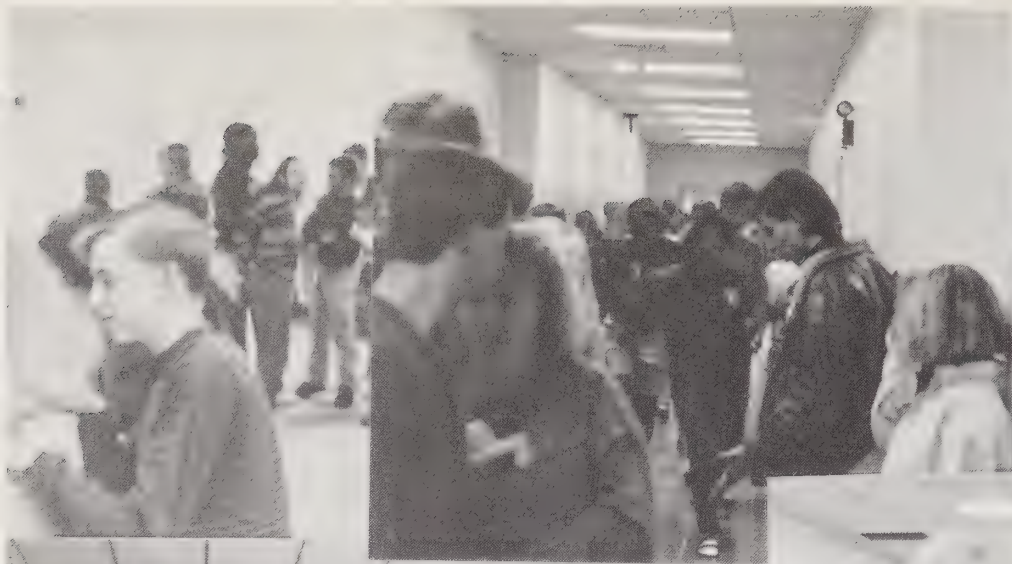

Trying to give dance lessons yields poor success.

Everyone likes Mr. Zebos: sports authority, advice expert, and popular substitute teacher.

Alex Lance: "Stand up and cheer or else"

Candi Pittillo and Jennifer Smith shared a close friendship this year as they made the transition from being Yellow Jackets to becoming KNIGHTS!

The NOBLES look on with quiet contentment as the student body of North Henderson gathers for one of their spirited pep rallies.

KNIGHTS and NOBLES

Jamie Freeman and Joe Cox were two of the many Seniors who became true KNIGHTS their final year.

Mrs. Singletary and Mrs. Greene were two of the NOBLES at North that helped U-Knight the student body.

SENIORS ...

FINALLY!!!

A Graduates Prayer

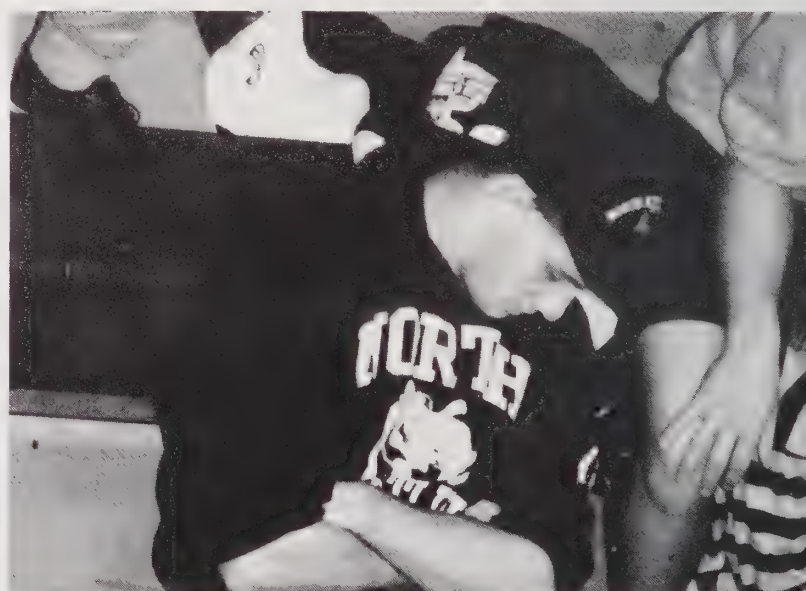

Father, I have knowledge,
So will you show me now
How to use it wisely
And find a way somehow
To make the world I live in
A little better place
And make life with its problems
A bit easier to face
Grant me faith and courage
And put purpose in my days,
And show me how to serve Thee
In the most effective ways
So all my education,
My knowledge and my skill
May find their true fulfillment As I learn to do Thy will; And may I ever be aware In everything I do
That knowledge comes from learning,
And wisdom comes from You.

James catches a quick nap before the big match. Seniors have to make the most of all their time.

Senior Memories

Jason Burrell: "There is probably no better way to loaf, without attracting a lot of attention, than to go fishing."

Vollie Barnwell: "Pain is temporary, but Pride is forever."

Stacey Brackett: "It isn't the load that weighs us down — it is the way we carry it."

Matt Carter: "If you catch on fire, try to avoid seeing yourself in the mirror, because I bet that is what really throws you into a panic."

Jason Case: "Patience is the ability to idle your motor when you feel like stripping your gears."

Scott Connor: "If it wasn't for bad luck, I'd have no luck at all."

Dacia Corn: "Baby Blue."

Jason Cossairt: "Of all the things I've lost in high school, I miss my mind the most."

Sherry Dalton: "A little kindness can make a lot of difference."

Nikita Darity: "Whoomp there it is! There is was, there it went."

Laura Denny: "Cherish every day, for today is tomorrow's yesterday."

Doyle Estes: "Don't drink and drive, you might spill your beer."

Heather Fender: "When I was a child, I spoke as child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child, but when I become an adult, I put away childish things."

Jamie Freeman: "Let's Rock!"

Jennifer Garrett: "God has not called me to be successful, he has called me to be faithful."

Heather Hall: "Absence makes the heart grow fonder."

Brandy Hammond: "Why worry about the future? Between the bomb and pollution there may not be any."

Kristi Rhodes: "The world when seen through a little child's eyes, greatly resembles paradise."
Randy Rhodes: "I love to fly and it shows."
Paul Roberts: "Treat others good."
Scott Salgado: "Can't we all just get along?"

Tonya Sams: "A single rose for the living is better than a costly wreath at the grave."
Gerald Souther: "Roses are red, violets are blue, I'm out of here, and I won't miss you."
Maria Stepp: "You've got to give a little to receive a little, especially in love."
Brandie Swiney: "Never judge a book by its cover."
Amy Thomas: "I have held many things in my hands and I have lost them all, but whatever I have placed in God's hands, that I still possess." — Martin Luther Janya Wisavakornsakow: "I've got to stand for something, but I fall over everything."

Jenny Winters 1976-1992

North Henderson lost a member of the class of 1994, Jenny Winters, in a car accident on August 10, 1992. She will be remembered, missed and loved by all who knew her.

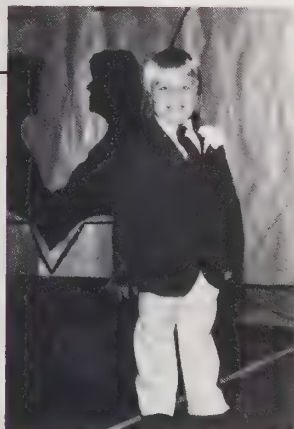

Doug Barnwell

Doug Barnwell, Congratulations!
We love you! Mom and Dad

Vollie Barnwell

Congratulations, Vollie. May God bless and guide you always. We love you very much. Mom, Dad,
Resa, and Charity

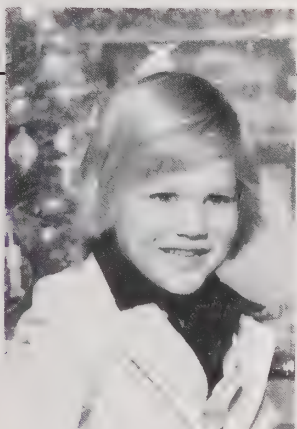

Stacey Brackett

Congratulations! You have always been one to go hard for what you have wanted and settle for nothing less. We are very PROUD of you Stacey. You have touched the hearts of a lot of people, but not as much as "OURS." Good luck and much success. We love you . . .
Mom, Dad, and Sandon

Sarah Brown

To our darling baby girl, love all but fear none. Everything in life lasts but for a season, and we will be here through them all. Love us.

Matt Carter

Matthew, that smile of yours has touched many lives from "Kindergarten to Graduation." You have made us very happy and we hope the future holds many things for you! Congratulations! We love you
. . . Dad & Dot

Jason Case

Have faith in what you believe in and don't give up on the future.
Love, Mom & Dad

Dusty Chapman

Just look at this picture — It says it all! We've adored your mischievous smile and glowing eyes all these years. Always remember: If we but take the time to pray, and seek God's guidance every day,
He'll give us strength and wisdom, too, to help us grow strong and true." We love you, Macky, Mom and Holly.

Beth Corn

Beth, many things have changed over the years, your blue eyes turned green and you finally grew some hair. But there's one thing that won't ever change and that's how much we love you. We wish you the best in everything you do.
Love, Mom and Dad

Joe Cox

Congratulations, Joseph! We are so proud of you and the young man you have become. We love you so very much! We thank God for blessing us with such a special son and brother as you are. Let God lead you and guide you in everything you do. Love, Mom, Dad, Eric, and Amber

Sherry Dalton

Sherry, I am very proud of you! Love you very much, Mom.

Laura Denny

Dear Laura, from that "First Day of School" to now, you have always made us proud to claim you as our daughter. Now that we see the lady you've become, we know it's time to begin to share you with the world. As you begin this next level of learning, remember we're still here, loving and supporting you all the way. Mom and Dad.

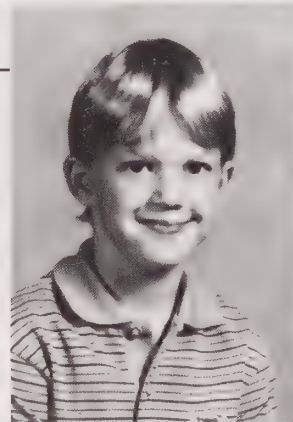

Jennifer Garrett

Jennifer, may God always be with you and lead you in every part of your life. We are so proud of you. We love you very much. Mama, Daddy, & Lisa.

Randy Gilliland

Randy, we knew you could do it! Congratulations and we are very proud of you. Love, Mom & Arnold.

David Griffin

DAVID — Things you've heard all your life — "You'll like this, it tastes just like Blue Cheese." "It's not gravy — it's sauce." "It's a simple game — you hit the ball, you throw the ball, you catch the ball." "Good Morning!! Time to get up!!" "Are you awake, are you up?" "March around the bed." — All of our love, Mom, Dad, & John.

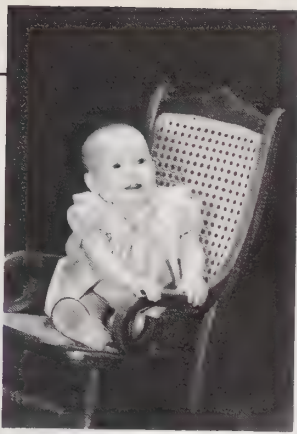

Brandy Hammond

All through life, just like when you were young, we won't push unless you are holding on. We love you, Mom and Dad.

Sharon Hill

We wondered when you were younger, how you would turn out. To look at you now, we realize that you turned out above-and-beyond just O.K. Love, Mom, Dad, Bobby, and Bryan.

Aliva Hoots

Aliva, you've made it! Congratulations, we love you! Hope that life will keep smiling on you. We are very proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, Keith, Odette, & Chris

Marsha Jenkins

Congratulations! We know it's been rough, but we always had faith that you could make it. We are really proud of you. We love you! Mom, Nanny, and Pawpaw

Chris Jones

You finally made it Chris, and we are so very proud of you. We thank God for you every day because you are a joy to our lives. We love you very, very much and pray God will be with you now and always. "Ask, it shall be given to you, Seek, and ye shall find, Knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For everyone that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened." (Luke 11:9-10)
Mom, Dad, Candi & Cassie

Felicia Justice

Princess, we are proud of you! We know your hard work will get you exactly what you want out of life!! Love, Mom, Dad, & Ashley.

Leslie Kittredge

From a pretty little girl to a beautiful young lady. Good luck! We love you! Mom & Gary

Alex Lance

Congratulations to a young man who went from extra small to extra tall. Good luck in all that you do and best wishes. Love, Dad & Sis-sy.

Alex Lance

Alex, you've come a long way. May your future go well and your dreams come true. We love you very much! Mom & Andrea

Regina Laws

Regina, We thank God each day for giving us such a beautiful and sweet "little girl" to care for and love. God bless you as your start another part of your life. Keep God in your heart and good luck. Love always, Dad, Mom, BethAnn, and Angela.

Meghan Long

We are very proud of you, Meghan. We pray for only the very best for you in the future. Love, Mom, Buddy, Chris, and Ginny.

Kendra Lyda

Kendra, while you are finding yourself in the world, there are many rewards in life. Happiness awaits you, and there are joys to give and to receive. There is knowledge to be found. Always listen to your own heart while reaching for nothing but the best. Give to life, and life will give to you. And as you live, always remember that you are loved and we are proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, Gerald, and Marcia.

Kevin McMinn

You have grown from a sweet little boy into a great son. We are very proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Kim.

Dwayne Owens

Congratulations Dwayne! You are the light of our lives. Never stop reaching for the things you want out of life and always remember our unconditional love. Good luck and may God bless you each day of your life ahead. All our love, Mom, Dad, and Scottie.

Christy Patterson

Christy, the years have passed all too quick, and we've seen you become a strong minded, independent, person which we are very proud of. Our love and best wishes go with you in whatever you undertake in your future. Congratulations!

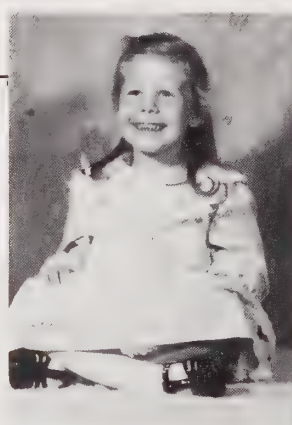

Travis Prince

Your love and friendship for life has grown through the years. We have been blessed by that love. Forever, Mom and Dad.

Anjie Payne

To our darling little Anjie. We're so proud of you. Thank you for the joy you've brought into our lives. May God always guide your footsteps. All our love, Daddy, Mama, and Aaron.

Amy Redden

Yesterday you were a baby, today you're an adult. Amy, you are a very special person, go for your dreams. You deserve the best life has to offer. We are so very proud of you and love you very much. Congratulations! Mom and Rick.

Mabelle Reed

To Mom's Little Baby Girl. Every mother deserves a daughter like you, but I know I have been one of the lucky few. You are cute, funny, and you have a smart head on your shoulders. I hope you keep up the good work, go on to school after graduation and become a pharmacist. I am very proud of you and I love you very much. Love, Mom.

Randy Rhodes

Randy, it seems like only yesterday when I walked you to the Kindergarten doors — Time flew by! You've always been and always will be my pride and joy! I love you, Mom.

Scott Salgado

Congratulations! We're happy you made it, Scotty, and we are so proud of you! Best of luck in your future. God bless you, son. Love, Mom, Dad, Joel, Stevie, and Stacey.

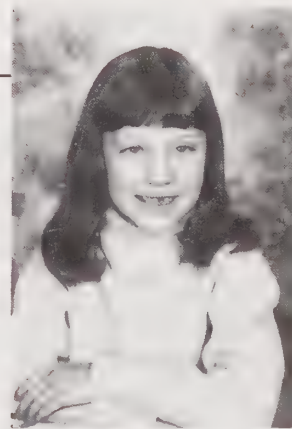

Tonya Sams

Well Ton, from a cheerful little girl to a beautiful young lady — overnight it seems! You have filled our hearts with laughter and our lives with excitement. You have always lived the impossible dream — so don't stop now. You have made us quite proud to have you in our lives! We love you very much and will always be here for you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Julie.

Marie Stepp

Congratulations MeMe! Mommy loves you very much. Love always, Mom, Heather, Jenny, and Jackie.

Brandie Swiney

Brandie — How did you ever change from a cute little girl into such a lovely woman? To you, it was just a matter of growing up. But to us, it meant watching you mature and develop wonderful qualities of kindness, thoughtfulness, and love. We are so proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad.

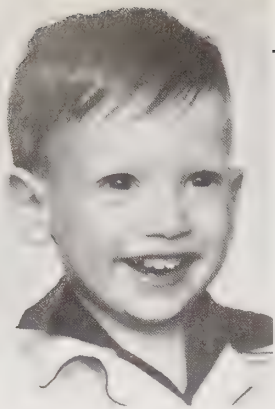

Katrina Taylor

I'm very proud of you. Thank you for being a wonderful daughter. I wish you all the luck in the world. Love, Mom.

Amy Thomas

Your presence is a present to the world. You're unique and one of a kind. Your life can be what you want it to be. Take the days just one at a time. Remember that a little love goes a long way. Remember that a lot . . . goes forever. Remember that friendship is a wise investment. Life's treasures are people . . . together. Realize that it's never too late. Do ordinary things in an extraordinary way. And don't ever forget . . . for even a day . . . how very special you are. Love, Mom and Dad.

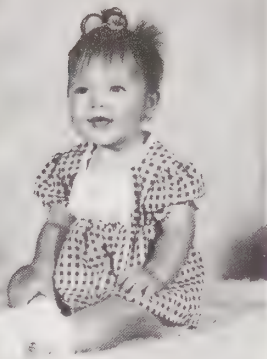

David Webb

All our love and support to a wonderful son, who was a special gift from God. Mom and Dad.

Antonia Urbina

We are proud of the beautiful, special, young lady you've become. Your smile brings us joy and love. May all you wish for in life come true and God bless you. We love you very much! Mom, Dad, Lalo, and Norma.

Janya Wisavakornsakow

"Suzie Wong," our beautiful gift from God. Lovely, Special, Talented, Sophisticated, Compassionate, Friend, Leader, Example, Perfectionist, Hard-working, Successful. A blessing. Oh, don't forget, "You must be in charge." (Ain't that right, Jaime?) We love you very much. Go with God! Mom, Bart, & Jaime.

Fingerprints

Sometimes you get discouraged because I am so small and always leave my fingerprints on furniture and walls.

But everyday I'm growing I'll be all grown up one day and all those tiny handprints will surely fade away.

So here's a final handprint just so you can recall exactly how my fingers looked when I was very small.

The Junior year is the hardest year for most students. This year, Juniors took the PSAT, studied their lessons, and still had time for after school activities. Many of the most dreaded courses taken in the Junior year are US History, Chemistry, and Algebra II. Most kids didn't expect the work load. As the year went on, more and more kids opted for easier courses, until only the dedicated few remained. However, the Junior year isn't all hard work. Many kids took the fun courses such as band, chorus, and dance. These classes and others like them gave the students a change to learn to work as a group as well as time for fun.

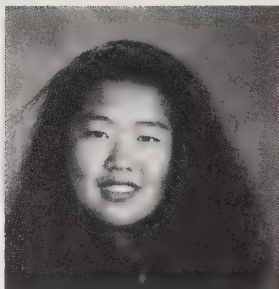

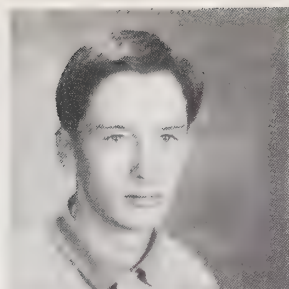

The Junior year is a year of decisions. The students have to begin thinking about college and what they want to do with their lives. This year many Juniors took their SAT and looked at college brochures. Also, many college representatives came to talk to interested scholars. Army, Navy, and Air Force representatives came to discuss opportunities for those students interested in a different direction.

The Junior Year is one of the hardest and most exciting of high school, with sports, studying and of course, the prom. One thing is for sure, it's one nobody will ever forget.

Becoming a Sophomore is definitely an anxiously awaited event. Overcoming the infamous stereotype of being a freshman and gaining their freedom as they turn sixteen are some of the many perks.

A driver's license not only means freedom, but also not having to beg for a lift from upperclassmen. Some Sophomores that had to stay after school made daily routines of traveling on foot to UNO's. A lucky few got a chance to go to Mr. Pete's or the Triangle Stop.

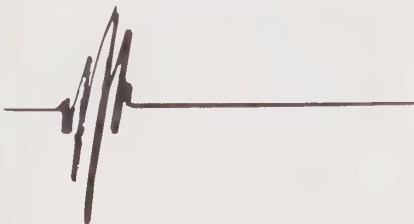

Everyone believes the Junior year is the hardest year of high school. Not so, if you ask the Sophomores. They also had their share of hard courses.

A new school meant a new start for everyone. With biology, world history, and other courses, the Sophomores had the time of their lives. This is one year that they all will remember for the rest of their lives.

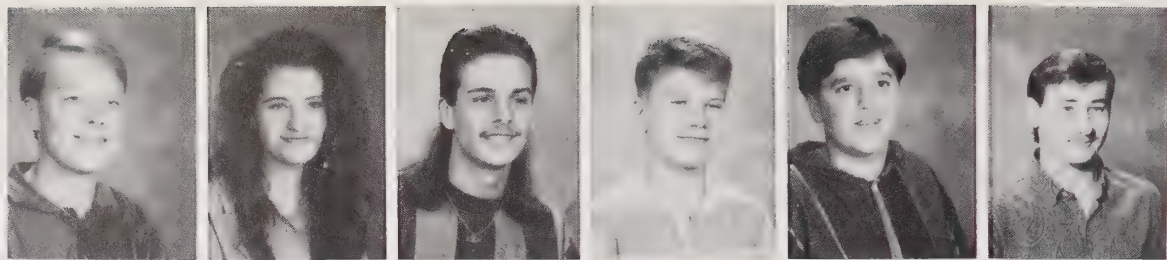

The Sophomores show off their class spirit on hat, tie, and shades day.

Off to School!

The Big Yellow Fellow

Even though those students in the ninth grade got the privilege to attend high school this year, it did not mean that they were privileged enough to drive to school. Some students were not lucky enough to be able to get rides with their parents, friends, or older brothers and sisters, either. Every morning they would go outside in the freezing cold to meet that big yellow fellow. Some students had to catch the bus as early as 6:30 in the morning which means they had to wake up as early as 5:30. Once they were out of the cold, you think their troubles would be over. However, that was when the real trouble would begin. They would then have to fight through a sea of people to find a place to sit. Sometimes they would have to squeeze in between two people or hang on to an inch of the seat on the edge. Of course there were always those loud and obnoxious Apple Valley students to deal with. After going through all of this, it was no wonder they were in a bad mood when they finally got to school. Many of them would catch up on their sleep when they arrived in first period. Some of them didn't sleep though because they would have nightmares about the bus ride home . . .

Belinda Goff hurries to her next class. These freshmen always seemed to be in a rush to get somewhere.

Emily Weast gets her hair measured during the scavenger hunt to see which girl in the school had the shortest hair.

"Now where did I put it?" asked Brian Beddingfield, as he searches through his locker to find a book.

Time For Change

Ninth Grade Moves Up

For the 9th graders from Rugby and Flat Rock, as for most of the Freshmen, there was a big change. They were promoted to the high school with the 10th, 11th, and 12th graders. The freshmen who came from Edneyville and Hendersonville were used to the idea of being in high school. The students from Flat Rock and Rugby were used to being in a junior high, however.

Some freshmen enjoyed the change, others did not. Freshmen hoped to be respected and get away from the things they did not like at their old schools.

Some did not like being on the bottom of the ladder like they had been in seventh grade. It seemed as though as soon as it was their turn to be on the top, life played a cruel trick on them. It was quite an adjustment but most of them handled it well.

Karla McGraw tries to nab an upperclassman, Steven Park.

Abbey Johnson asks, "How does my hair look?"

"So much money, so little time!" Kristy Starling was lucky to even be in the money machine. Many other students wanted a chance to see how much money they could get, also.

All work, no play! These three dedicated freshmen worked hard on the homecoming mural. They were not the only ones, many other freshmen pitched in, too.

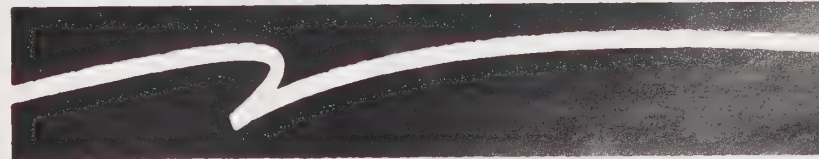

The freshmen know how to have a good time at the pep rally. This was just one of the many pep rallies held throughout the year.

Everyone was new this year. New faces, halls, and classrooms. The faculty and administration met the challenge though. Everyone worked together. From helping a lost student to keeping peace in the courtyard, everyone did their part. The library held many teas to honor the teachers' hard work. These teas provided the chance for everyone to get acquainted. This new combination of faculty and administration proved to be not only an effective, but a cohesive, unit that worked together to accomplish many wonderful things for the first year at North Henderson High School.

What a combination!! These three really had a tough job: starting a brand new school! They pulled together and made a huge success out of the first year of North Henderson High School. Mr. Thomas's wit and humor + Mr. Barnwell's hard work and dedication + Mrs. Corn's organization = North Henderson High School 1993-94.

Mr. Charles Thomas stands very confidently in front of his office. Mr. Thomas rarely looks so serious. He is a fun-loving guy but also gets the job done. He served as an excellent principal for the first year of North Henderson High School.

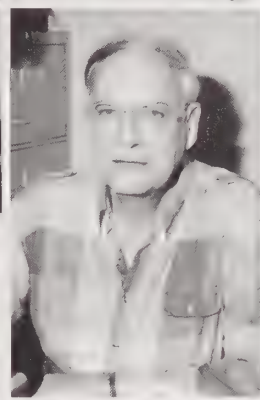

Mr. Richard Barnwell served as one of the first Vice Principals for North Henderson High School. His main job was to see that everyone rode the right bus and each bus had a driver. He also handled disciplinary matters for the juniors and seniors.

Mrs. Corn also served as one of the first Vice Principals for North Henderson High School. She was responsible for disciplinary action for the freshman and sophomores. She also served as a wonderful female leader for the school.

Hey all you Knight fans! The crowd supported and enjoyed the KNIGHT GAMES.

KNIGHT GAMES

Lady Knights' basketball provided many exciting KNIGHT GAMES.

Brad Gross brings the ball up the field in a KNIGHT GAME against Hendersonville. Although the soccer team was young, the members were still able to obtain Knight victories.

Character

Dealing with Difficulty

The 1993 Football season was filled with tragedy, injury, and heart. Having no past, the inaugural Knights had the difficult task of building tradition. Winning was not a big part of the season, but character was. With a 1-9 season the Knights gained a lot of moral victories. Two players were selected to the All Conference team and the All Area team as well as 4 recognized as All Western N.C. Injury plagued the year with numbers getting as low as 13 in practice and with coaches playing positions. The Knights didn't quit — they won the next to the last game against Chase High. The Knights didn't win many games but did win the respect of their opponents by never giving up.

The North High coaching staff sacrificed as much as their players. They are, kneeling — Head coach Mac Cumbo, standing — Assistant coaches Jeff Roper, Gary Pittillo, Barry Bonnett, Kirk McMurray.

Mackie Cumbo warms up before his last high school football game. Seniors will remember the days they played as some of the best days of their lives.

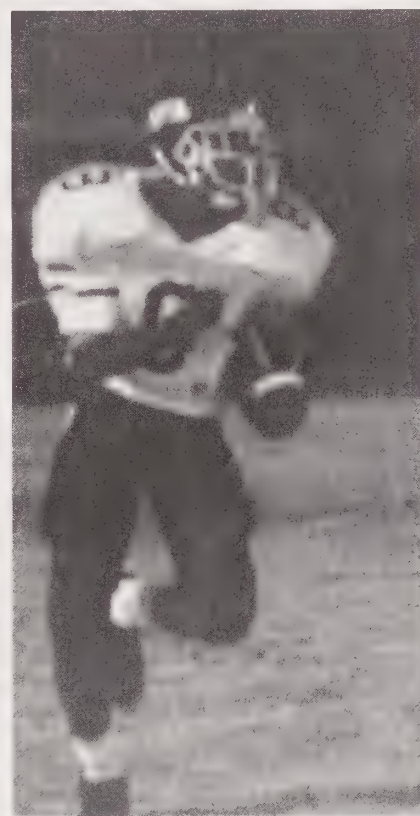

Jeff, Jamie, and Travis tighten up the defense in a close conference loss 14-12 to East Henderson.

Jake Jenkins receives his most valuable fan award at the Fall Athletic Banquet for being present at every game for 3 seasons.

Scooter runs for a big gain after catching Randy's pass in the Knights' final game.

Charles Robinson outruns a defender on one of two touchdown receptions against the Bearcats.

Coach Cumbo explains the defensive scheme to the knights at a mid-week practice session.

Following the lead block of left tackle Jamie Freeman, "Wheezie" Lyda is on his way to an 1100 yard season. The two went to all conference and all area honors.

Coach Cumbo and Matt Carter converse before yet another 3 down attempt to convert.

The knights begin to warm up before their last football game of 1993. Even though wins weren't abundant, the team always had fun.

Randy Gilliland and Coach Cumbo await the referee's call on the third down conversion. The knights won their only game at home against Chase.

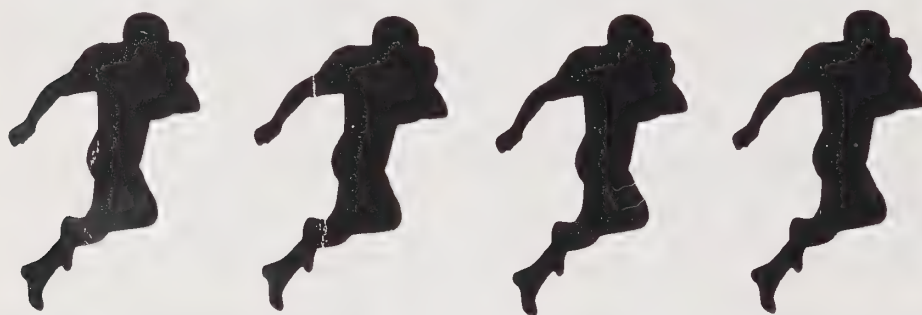

Youth Shines

Preparing for the Future

This year the J.V. Football team won their conference with a record of 8-2, losing only to Hendersonville and Brevard.

The team's offense was backed by a powerful running game. The leading rusher, Brandon Henderson, had nearly 1000 yards for the season. The coaches of the team were Head Coach Chuck Byrd and assistants Jimmy Summey and Joey Haynes.

There were only 24 players on the team. They did well, even though they barely had enough players to scrimmage. The Sophomores' season was shortened by playing 10 games. When they moved up to the varsity they were ineligible to compete at that level.

1993 J.V. Football Schedule

Hendersonville	L	9-12	East Henderson	W	41-13
T.C. Roberson	W	14-3	West Henderson	W	7-06
Smokey Mountain	W	28-0	Polk County	W	43-0
	Brevard	L	6-13

North J.V. line up in their home game against T.C. Roberson which they won 14-3.

Resa Barnwell spikes a winner over a Hendersonville blocker in the last game of the season. The JV Lady Knights defeated Hendersonville 15-11, 15-11.

Practice Pays Off

The first Junior Varsity Volleyball team of North Henderson had a terrific season. The girls worked hard in practice and in the games. Coach Derwin Williams awarded Christy Wilkie the "Most Valuable Player" award at the fall banquet.

The 1993 JV Volleyball team had a record of 11-9. The girls never gave up and greatly improved their play by the end of the season. Their skills became more polished and they obtained more confidence in themselves and in each other. This learning season helped each member of the team grow as an athlete and as a person.

Cristy Wilkie's serves were not the only impressive part of her game. She also provided consistent defense, sets, spikes, and blocks for the JV Lady Knights.

Amy Thomas and Sabrina Cairnes block against Maiden. The Lady Knights routed Maiden in three straight games to advance to the second round of the State Play-offs.

Power kills from Sabrina Cairnes helped intimidate the opponents and paved the way for the Lady Knights to advance through the Play-offs.

CONGRATULATIONS LADY KNIGHTS

ACC
CHAMPIONS

Faced with a new school and new teammates, the 1993 Varsity Volleyball team of North Henderson turned these seemingly impassable obstacles into victories. Due to their experienced coaching staff, incredible athletic abilities and close friendships, the girls on the team pulled together for a perfect 20-0 regular season, obtained the first ACC Championship title, and made it to the third round in the State Play-offs.

The team was young, but they had many powerful weapons. Their success can be contributed to their depth, skill, and Coach. Coach Moon did an outstanding job with the girls and deserves a lot of credit for the team's accomplishments.

At the fall athletic banquet, junior Sabrina Cairnes received the "Best Hitter" award and the lone senior, Amy Thomas, was awarded the "Lady Knight" award for her leadership and for keeping the team's spirit alive. Receiving All Conference awards were Sabrina Cairnes, Natara Beddingfield, and Amy Thomas.

As the remaining members of the team develop their skills, we hope to enjoy a trip to state next year.

Knight Pride, Grrr . . . was the cry of the Lady Knights volleyball team during their team huddles.

The Lady Knights success was due partly to their athletic ability and partly to their close friendships they shared. Kristin Loftis and Ryan Dunlap spend an afternoon at Pizza Hut with the team before their last regular season game against Hendersonville.

Natara Beddingfield goes up for a monster slam. The Lady Knights had too many weapons for the opponents to handle.

Sophomore Ryan Dunlap kills a quick set in the match against Maiden. Although the Lady Knights were a young team, their record showed their knowledge and skill of the game.

What a dig! LaShay Coates' incredible defense provided the perfect start to the Lady Knights' awesome offense.

Kickin' Away

En Route to Victory

North Henderson's first soccer team showed many strengths, even though it was a time of transition and their record was not great. They spent many hours reviewing the basic skills and learning each other as well as a new coach. Overall, the soccer team had a good year and it will show in the future.

Vollie Barnwell pushes on to increase the distance between himself and a West High runner. Vollie, along with all the other runners proved that they could compete with anyone!

Hard Work

Makes Up for Small Numbers

If a person were to look at the first cross-country team of North Henderson they would think that the team had no chance. The team was very small and due to injuries, they ran some races with only five members. However, the Knights worked hard, relied on experience and dedication, and were always very competitive. The team qualified for regionals and went on to finish eighth in Western North Carolina. Doug Barnwell went on to compete in the state meet, individually. This first team of North obviously gave future teams something to shoot for and a tradition to carry on!

Jonathan Waters (left) and Doug Barnwell (right) work their way past the competition. Although their styles were sometimes different, they both finished ahead of their opponents and both earned Co-MVP honors.

Cheerleaders

"Build" Knight Spirit

Along with the opening of a new school came many changes. Some of these affected cheerleading. North Henderson had separate football and basketball cheerleading squads. The tryouts for football cheerleaders were held in May. Ten girls were chosen to be the first Varsity cheerleading squad at North Henderson High School.

The cheerleaders attended a NCA cheerleading camp at Peace College in Raleigh in August. The squad received a superior rating at the camp evaluation. "Camp brought the cheerleaders together and made them realize that they were no longer from three separate schools, but from North," remarked Coach Sheri Lewis.

Time, effort, and dedication held the squad together through drenching downpours and adverse conditions. Smiles and enthusiasm kept the fans and team going strong with the new "Knight" spirit.

Cheerleading

is more than just spirit!

The basketball cheerleaders began their season with tryouts held at the beginning of November. The cheerleaders hurriedly began practice for their first game which was to be held in three weeks. The squads learned new pyramids, cheers, and chants and also learned how to work together as a team in a very short period of time.

The squad had several pep rallies to help build school spirit and get students to come to the games and support the teams. The crowd had several chants that were favorites and always brought them to their feet to cheer with the cheerleaders.

North Cheerleaders can always be found promoting spirit wherever they go.

J.V. Cheerleaders

Shake The Stands

The North Henderson jayvee cheerleaders had separate football and basketball squads. But both squads had the same purpose — to get the crowd involved in the games by cheering on the teams. The cheerleaders used pyramids, cheers, and chants to build enthusiasm and spirit in the stands.

One On One

Winning Together

With a new school and a new name, the North Henderson wrestling team started a new tradition. With nine members of the squad coming back from a very successful Edneyville team, then adding five members from the other county schools, you end up with a team that has a lot of experience and potential to do some great things this year. North Henderson was led into the season with four seniors, all of who qualified for the State tournament during the 1992-93 season.

Daniel Short readies himself for a reversal against Mountain Heritage. Daniel has shown an incredible work ethic and has developed into a tremendous wrestler.

This guy has got to wonder what he did wrong! First of all, he stepped on the mat with a knight, namely James Short. James continued his great career with another impressive year combining strength, speed, and a flawless technique.

Mackie Cumbo concentrates on breaking his opponent down. Mackie's attitude was outstanding and his competitors always knew that they were in for a tough match and usually a defeat.

The North High Wrestling Team takes time to pose for a picture after one of their many first place victories in tournaments. The War Eagle Invitational is a prestigious wrestling tournament and was one of the steps this team took toward an incredible season.

Who could this be? The shirt says it all. Danny "Baby Duck" Williams was one of four seniors who carried the wrestling team. Some might look at "Duck" and say, "He's too small," but after wrestling him they definitely knew the truth.

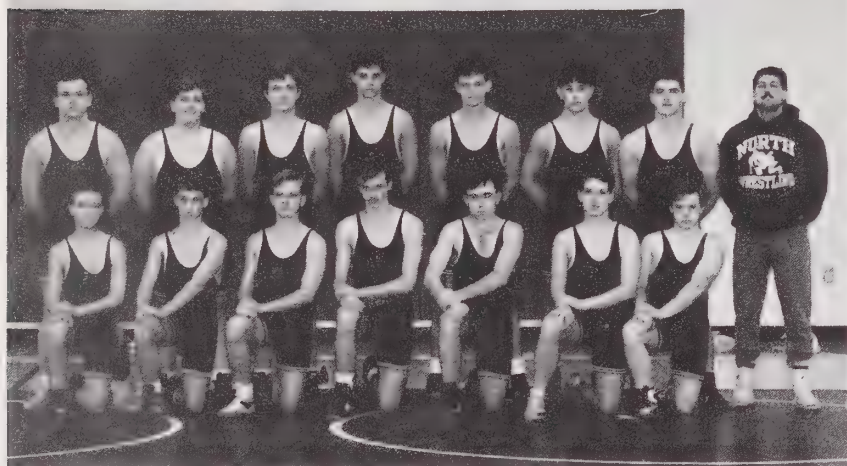

Brian Naples is only inches away from another pin. Brian was a great help to the JV squad, while he also gained experience with the varsity team.

Working Hard

Gaining Experience

North Henderson's first Junior Varsity Wrestling Team knew that this year was one full of promise if they worked hard. They did work hard and had a great season. Not only did they enjoy success wrestling other JV squads, but several wrestlers had success at the varsity level of competition. In the near future this team will develop from a good JV team to an outstanding varsity team.

Splashin' A way To Victory

The swim team at North Henderson was a new experience for many of its members and its coach. Although the team was small, they practiced extremely hard every day to be the best they could be. Swimming is different from all other sports because there is never a home match. The team had to get used to practicing every day at the YMCA and having all of their meets on the road. The team improved throughout the year and gained important experience that will show up in the future.

Gina Thomas shows impressive technique in the 100 meter free-style. Gina's continuous hard work during the year made her one of the team's greatest assets.

Sabrina Cairnes' outside shots, as well as her post play, were tremendous assets to the Lady Knights.

Point guard Kristin Loftis goes one-on-one against a TC Roberson player. "Little Bit" improved her skills and increased her confidence to help the Lady Knights gain many victories.

Natara Beddingfield's foul shots, post plays, and good ball-handling skills provided well-rounded play for the Lady Knights.

Compensating with Quickness

North Henderson High School's first Varsity girls' basketball team might have had a disadvantage from their lack of height, but they overcame this with quickness and aggressiveness. "Due to our lack of height, we knew we had to compensate with blocking out and moving our feet," Coach Sue Moon stated.

Each practice, Head Coach Sue Moon and Assistant Coaches Jackie Caldwell and Lola Coston encouraged the girls to get tough and block out the "big girls". The practices and games demanded the girls to be in top physical condition.

The Varsity girls' strengths were quickness and good decision making. Coach Moon impressed it upon the girls to make good decisions and have court vision.

The young basketball team owed its success to power post plays from Natara Beddingfield, Sabrina Cairnes, and LaShay Coates, sharp outside shooting from Heather King and Sabrina Cairnes, vigorous defense by Kristin Loftis and Amy Thomas, and outstanding depth to their bench.

Senior Amy Thomas makes a strong move to the basket against East. Amy's basketball skills, as well as her leadership on the court, were important to the team.

Heather King scores two for North in the game against East. North defeated East 61-48.

A Full Season

Of Ups and Downs

As winter came and basketball season began, hopes and expectations were high. The Knights didn't disappoint anyone as they were victorious in their first three games and averaged over 90 points per game. After the great start however, many problems confronted the new team. Injuries, ineligible players, and other problems slowed the season. However, the Knights, led by seven seniors, came together, worked hard, and brought their game back to the level it should be. The Knights began to peak at just the right time as the victories started to return. The Knights were ready for the conference season and playoffs.

Randy Gilliland hustles for a loose ball against Pisgah. Randy's hustle and determination constantly pushed himself and his teammates. Randy was one of the team's many leaders.

Matt Carter puts up another jumper inside. Matt could always be counted on to be battling down low. Matt was near the top in scoring and was the Knights' leading rebounder.

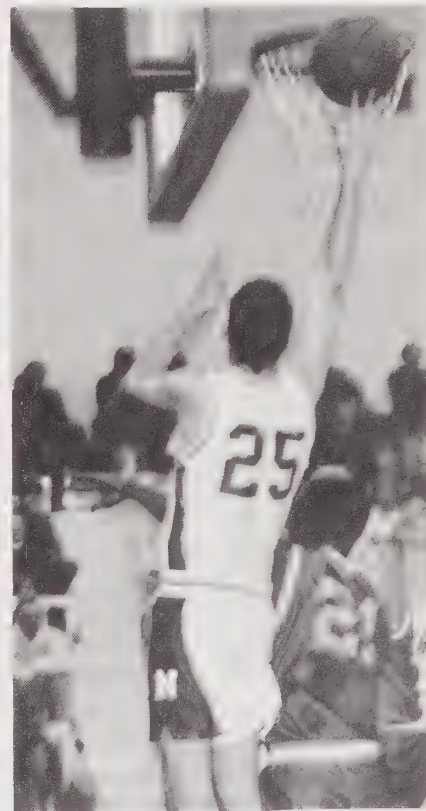

Jeff Holbert prepares to zip a pass between two Chase defenders. Jeff dazzled the crowd and opponents with his impressive drives and unbelievable shots and assists.

"Scooter" Gibbs quickly and smoothly brings the ball down the court. Scooter's unbeatable quickness made him tough to stop, both on offense and on defense.

Vollie Barnwell gets ready to put the pressure on an opponent. Vollie, along with all of the Knights, took pride in defense and this led to many victories. A Knight seen taking a "charge" wasn't uncommon.

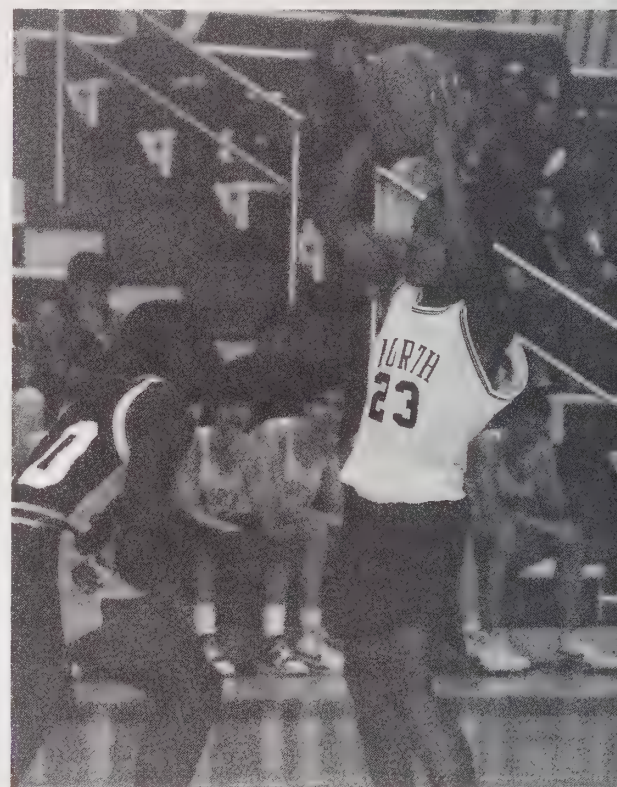

Bo Strickland adds two more points against Brevard. Bo kept fans in awe with his scoring abilities. He was the Knights' leading scorer.

Victories

Beginning to Mount

As the season started, many people wondered what kind of team would come together. At first the JV squad struggled with many young players and had to get used to a new coach. After the team began to blend together and gain experience, the victories started coming. Attitude and hard work were key ingredients to a somewhat surprising and impressive season.

Student Council

Making a Constitution ... celebrating holidays ... Homecoming Week ... Chartering Clubs ... Fund Raisers ... Organizing Assemblies. These are just a few of the many things that the Student Council did in order to bring this school together and make it work. With students coming from all different schools, it was difficult to compromise. Everyone still had the traditions from their old school planted firmly in their head. But with the help of Mr. Orr, the Student Council realized that this is not their old school, this is North Henderson High School and it needs traditions of its own. It was hard getting everybody involved this year, but looking back on the year, it was a success. The Student Council worked extremely hard to give North traditions that will last for years to come.

Within just a few weeks from the first day of school, we had Student Body Officers, Class Officers, and a complete Student Council trying to prepare events for the entire school. It was about mid-year when the Student Leadership class presented the Constitution to the Faculty and Students. The Student Council will always be recognized for giving North Henderson High School a firm foundation on which to build.

This year's Student Council Officers were ... President: Brandy Hammond; 1st Vice President: Leslie Kittredge; 2nd Vice President: Amanda Pressley; Secretary: Jamie Freeman; Treasurer: Paul Jenkins

Marching Knights

Band Director:
Gerald Ledford

The proudest moment for the Marching Knights was when they received their first superior trophy at Alcoa. Here they celebrate their victory at Pizza Hut; the first trophy ever received at North Henderson.

In their first year of existence, the NHHS Marching Knights distinguished themselves as a superior marching band. In October they traveled to Alcoa, Tennessee to perform at the annual Alcoa Invitation Marching Festival. The Knights received a superior rating. The Drum Major, Stacey Brackett, received a 3rd place trophy for his outstanding conducting skills.

Many individual players also distinguished themselves. Talented individuals tried for spots in the three All State bands. Six students proved worthy of the honor.

The Marching Knights had a rough start this year. Because of rain during the week of band camp, the band was forced to practice inside the library. The library will probably never have that much noise in it again. As soon as the parking lot was paved the band could move outside to their make-shift "practice field."

The Knights have proved themselves worthy of every honor.

Science

There were many different kinds of sciences. You as a student were required to take three sciences in order to graduate. Most students took physical science in their freshman year, biology in their sophomore year, and some other kind of science either their junior or senior year such as chemistry or physics. Most students preferred to go ahead and take a science their junior year to insure an easier senior year. Physics was one of the new courses offered this year and proved to be quite a challenging class.

With its variety of exciting experiments, Chemistry proved to be a popular science class.

Math

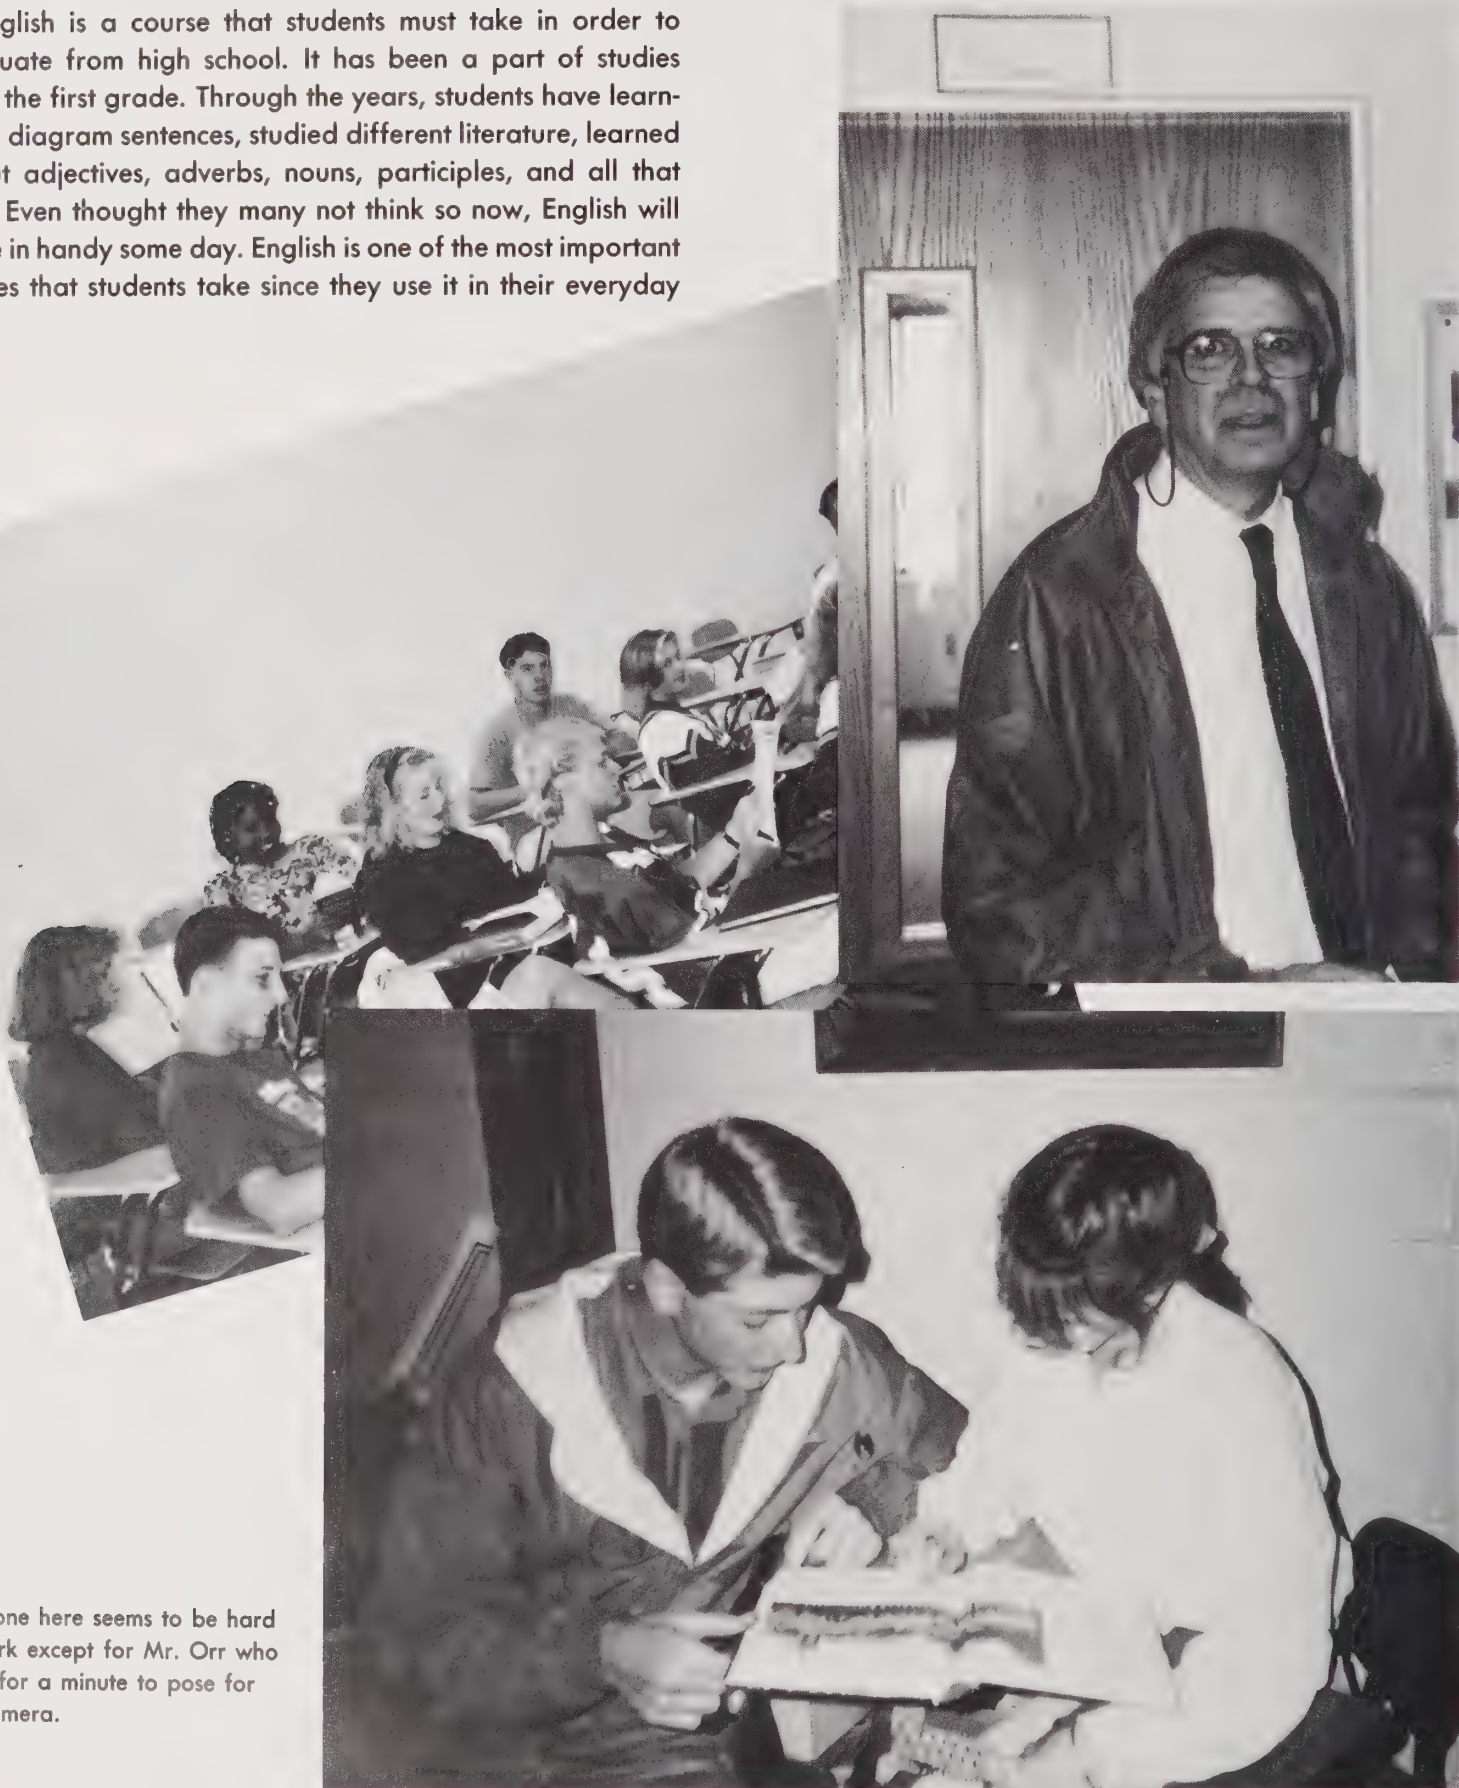

Mathematics, to some, was probably one of the most dreaded subjects in high school. Many comments pertaining to math could be heard up and down the halls. Among these were, "I am totally lost in Algebra." "Why do you have to worry about a number that's not real?" And the most popular of all, "When in life am I ever really gonna use Algebra or Geometry?" Believe it or not folks, you really do use it. Even if you plan on flipping burgers the rest of your life. But since most of us plan on being rich, we had better get started.

Most of these people are planning on attempting math if they can ever wake up and get into the classroom. It's not easy having math first thing in the morning.

English

English is a course that students must take in order to graduate from high school. It has been a part of studies since the first grade. Through the years, students have learned to diagram sentences, studied different literature, learned about adjectives, adverbs, nouns, participles, and all that jazz. Even though they may not think so now, English will come in handy some day. English is one of the most important classes that students take since they use it in their everyday lives.

Everyone here seems to be hard at work except for Mr. Orr who stops for a minute to pose for the camera.

Foreign Language

There are two different foreign languages offered at North, French and Spanish. Most people take a foreign language because it is part of the minimal requirements to get into college. Even though it helps with college credits, it is good for students to get a taste of foreign cultures. After all, they never know when they may visit one of these countries.

Here we have some of our foreign language classes. (And that's not one of those camera tricks. Tara and Leslie are actually working.)

History Classes

Lessons from the past . . . footsteps to the future.

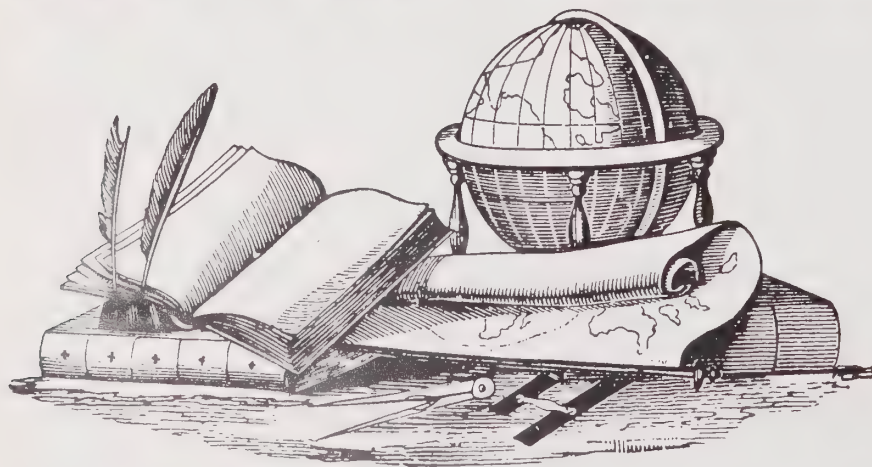

. . . exploring the world's climate, geographical regions, and natural phenomena in World Geography.

. . . tracing man's journey through the prehistoric times onward through the 5,000 years of recorded history in World History.

. . . journeying through the footsteps of our Founding Fathers and marveling at the wonders of the greatest democracy on earth as it begins to emerge and flourish in United States History.

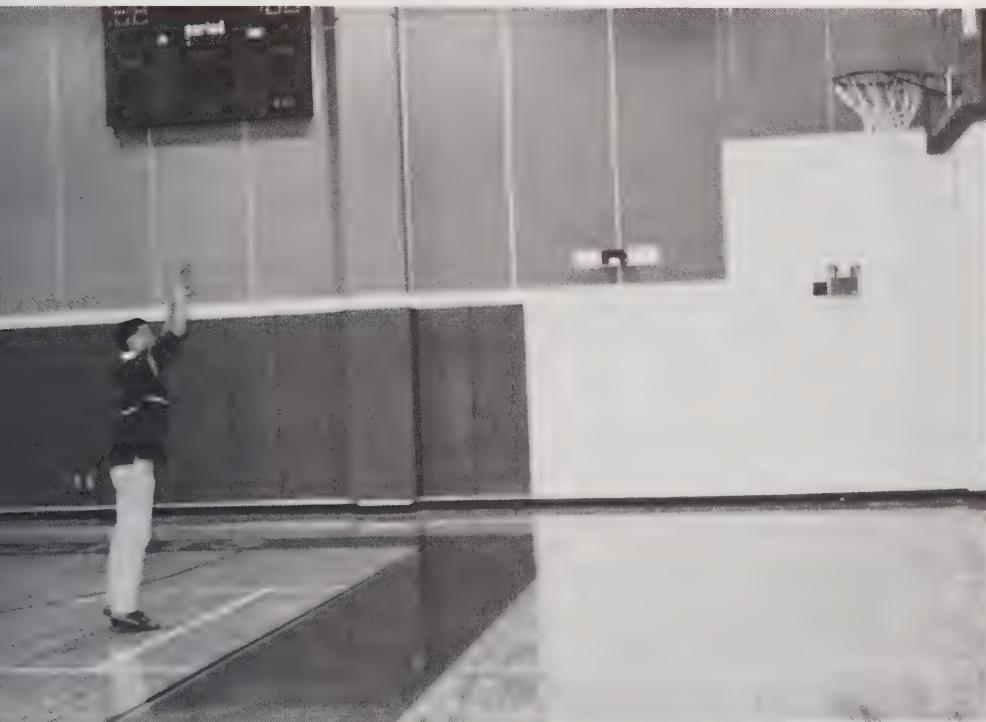

. . . delving into man's mind and his personality in order to understand himself now and in the future in psychology.

With the help of Mrs. Case, these students take part in studying the past and the future. Norton states it beautifully, "Time present and time past are both perhaps present in time future, and time future contained in time past."

Physical Education

Brent Nix concentrates on free throws before the upcoming evening game. Brent played small forward for the Varsity Knights.

Physical Education is viewed differently by a variety of people. Some take it because they need a class to relax in and have fun doing something they enjoy. Others participate in some sort of P.E. to better themselves. Many athletes are involved in weightlifting classes or an advanced physical education class in which they work on their specific sport. Whatever the reason for being involved in Physical Education, it is an essential part of life for everyone.

Having two nice gyms for PE classes was beneficial. Playing basketball in the beautiful North Henderson main gym was a popular place for the athletes as well as for those just having fun. Many of the Health and PE classes worked out in the auxillary gym as well.

Dance

Dance classes for our first year at North were taught by Mrs. Patrice Justice. Even though she had a baby, the classes did well with Michelene Rhodes as the sub. Mrs. Rhodes also helped with the Dance Team at the start of their season. Dance is popular class, and the students enjoyed it. There were even times when Mr. Orr's class would join them and learn line dances.

Different dances were practiced in each class, but almost all classes learned the line dances.

Chorus

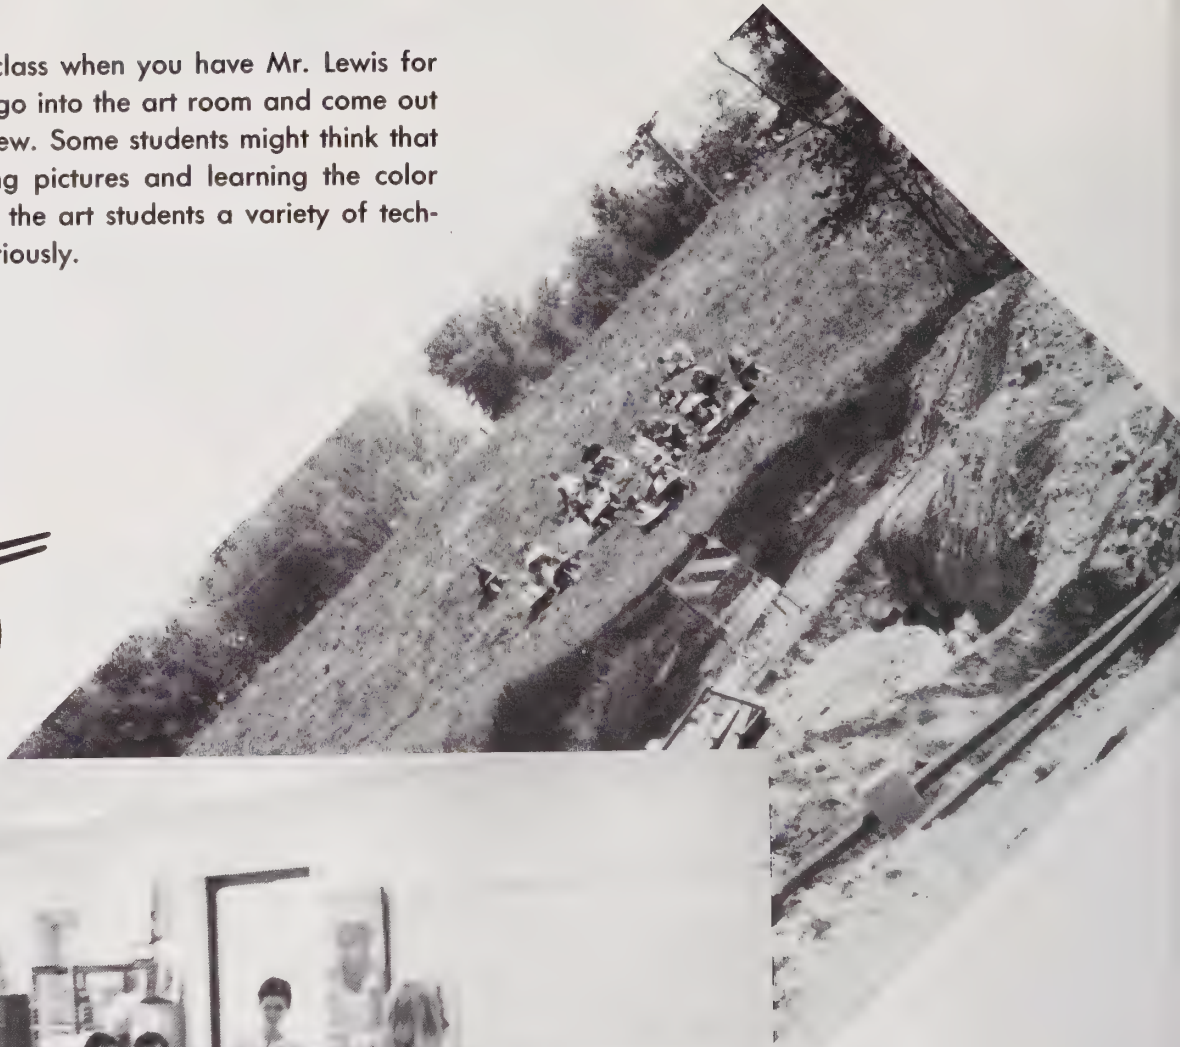

Entertainment was not on the mind of chorus students this year. These people liked to sing. And the good thing was they weren't half bad! Even before the year began, all chorus classes were filled to the capacity. Some students who wanted to change their schedules considered chorus as an option, only to find out there was no room. Nevertheless, they found some place to put the rest, and chorus turned out as a great group.

This is an example of one of the chorus groups in action. They performed several times this year.

Art

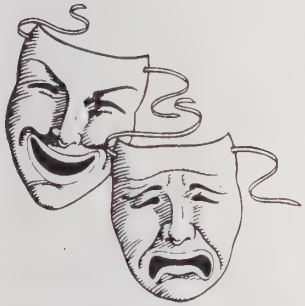

Art is always an exciting class when you have Mr. Lewis for a teacher. It is impossible to go into the art room and come out without knowing something new. Some students might think that art class is all about drawing pictures and learning the color wheel, but Mr. Lewis teaches the art students a variety of techniques that must be taken seriously.

Theater

Lights, camera, action! That's what most people think theater class is all about. However, theater class with Mr. Orr as your teacher is much different. Theater students not only learn how to act, but also learn how to operate a light board, make costumes, and prepare stage designs. Theater students will agree that theater class can be described as a total learning experience.

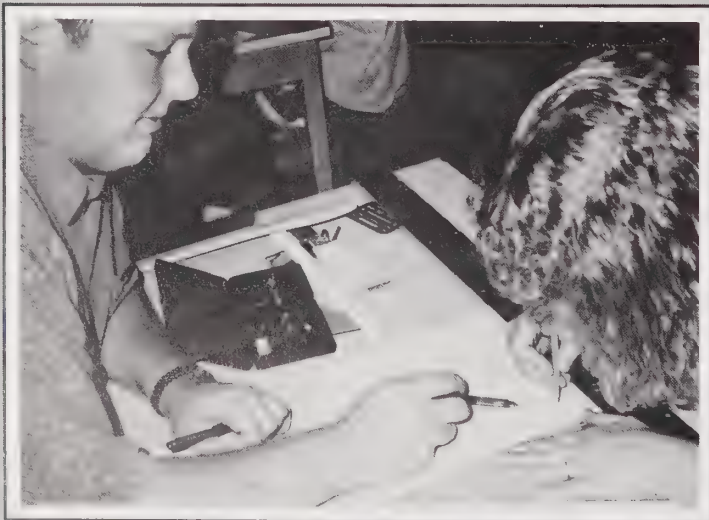

Vocational Classes

Walking down X and Y halls, the students saw that "Shaping the Future" was the goal of North Henderson's newly equipped Vocational Department. Our school was very prepared to assist students in their career choices through the following assets: A new Health Occupations program, well-equipped kitchens for Home Ec., over 50 IBM computers for the Business Ed. labs, a new Electronics program, the latest in architectural equipment for Drafting, greenhouses for Ag., a Marketing Ed. school store, and an up-to-date automotive lab.

While North's slogans were "Honoring Our Past, Shaping our Future", and Stars: Students, Taking Action — Reaching Solutions, it was obvious the vocational department led the way, educating students in fine labs equipped with the latest technology.

These Business Education students had fun during spirit week while they took a serious approach to keyboarding.

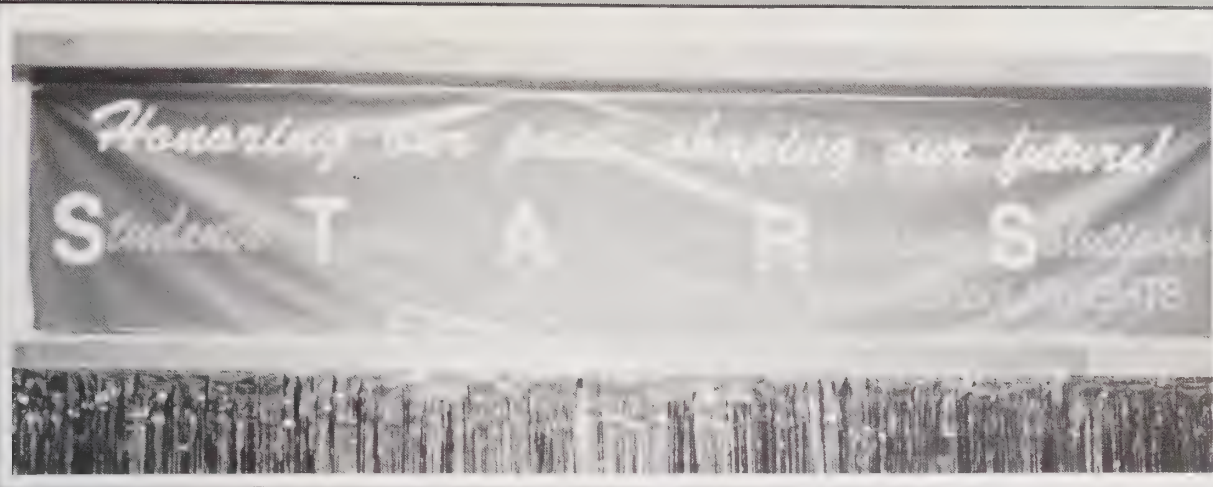

The students who left school early and earned a credit for working were supervised by Marketing Education teacher, Mr. Val Burch.

Using the latest drafting equipment, Mr. Howell instructed Aliva Hoots as she drew a machine part from a mechanical perspective.

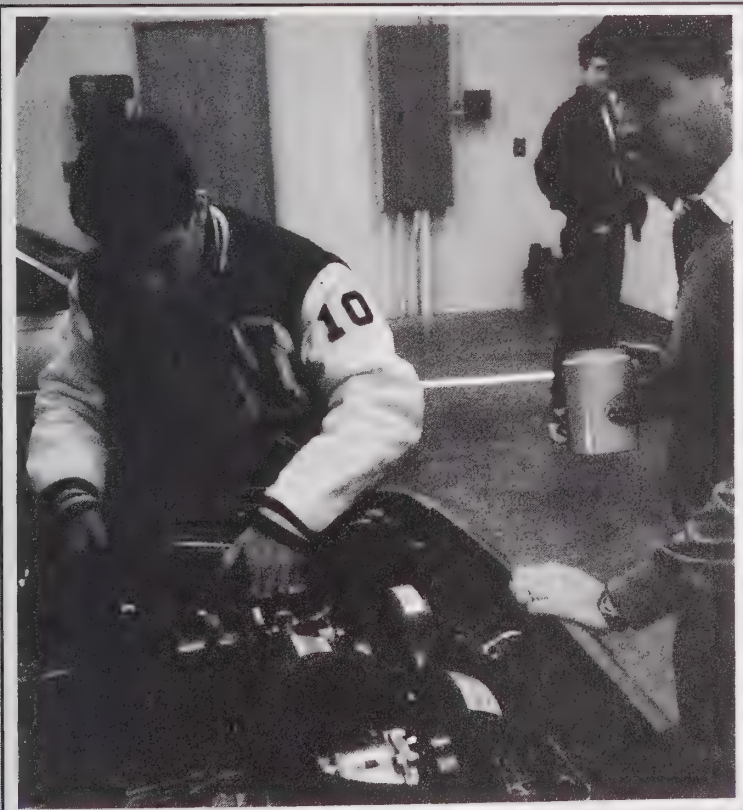

To maintain a "green thumb", Jon watered the plants as the other Ag students supervised.

The NHHS 1993-94 slogan: "Honoring our past, shaping our future! Students Taking Action — Reaching Solutions" This year began with this slogan as the banner hung in the commons area sporting our school colors: purple, gold and white.

Jenny Gozda was not excited about breaking the eggs for this cake. Of course, as with all the Home Ec. students, eating what they cooked made it all worthwhile. (Most of the time!)

Coach Byrd oversaw Scott Salgado as he completed a preventive maintenance check on a customer's vehicle. The Automotive program offered these services to faculty and students for a small fee.

Mrs. Green was proud to begin the first Health Occupations program at North Henderson. She and her students were well equipped and took advantage of her resources at Pardee Hospital. Health Occupations was a perfect program for Maria Stepp as she desires to become a Registered Nurse.

Special Education

Sunny Pearson studied hard to be successful in her school work.

Jon Knowles practiced his math, having strong support from his teacher. Like Sunny, Jon strives for success.

The Special Education Department has faced a real challenge this year with Mr. Joubert's recent transfer to an Assistant Principal position at another school. Even though Kathy Young, Department Head, was thrown a curve ball, she has been most successful. Mrs. Green and Mrs. Lyda certainly helped this department survive.

This program is very valuable and parents have been concerned that a total mainstreaming decision might begin. This concern will continue to be unknown until we hear from our state government.

Mrs. Green assisted the Special Ed teachers and students. Sunny says, "Come on Mrs. Green, give me one more chance!"

The Excalibur Staff

This year's Excalibur staff worked very hard to ensure that North Henderson's first yearbook was a memorable one. Many long hours were spent drawing layouts and writing copy. Although the yearbook staff started off at a disadvantage, the dedication of every staff member towards a completed yearbook proved enough to overcome most of the obstacles presented. The Excalibur Staff hopes that you will agree that this yearbook will be cherished.

Having Kevin Stipe and Christina Muñoz type a lot of the copy, helped to keep the yearbook copywriting consistent. Kevin and Christina were real assets.

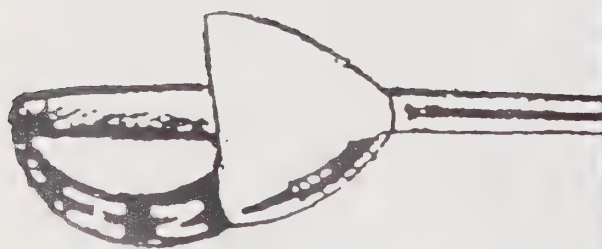

Mrs. Singletary worked with small groups as the Excalibur Staff planned the theme, cover design, and section layouts.

The Juniors were a group of GOOD KNIGHTS who enjoyed cheering for the North sports teams.

Regina Thomas represented the Knights well at the swim meets. GOOD KNIGHTS took pride in their school and its activities.

Although many new friendships were created at North, old friendships were strengthened. Seniors Vollie Barnwell and Dustin Smith console Senior Amy Thomas after the volleyball team lost their first match in the third round of the state play-offs. The Seniors say GOOD KNIGHT to North and the high school life.

The first Excalibur Staff relaxes after a year of hard work. They made the effort to publish a yearbook with special memories of North's first year.

Dustin Smith, Kristin Loftis, and Randy Gilliland enjoyed their days out of school due to the snow.

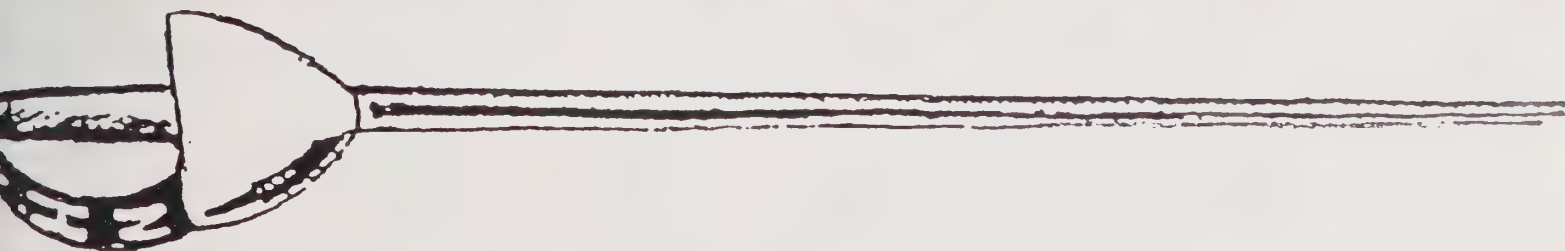

Dreading the return to the court after a long Christmas break, Ryan Dunlap appreciated her gag gift she received at the Lady Knights' Christmas Party.

Although the students at North experienced a big change, Deon Mendoza was all smiles about the situation.

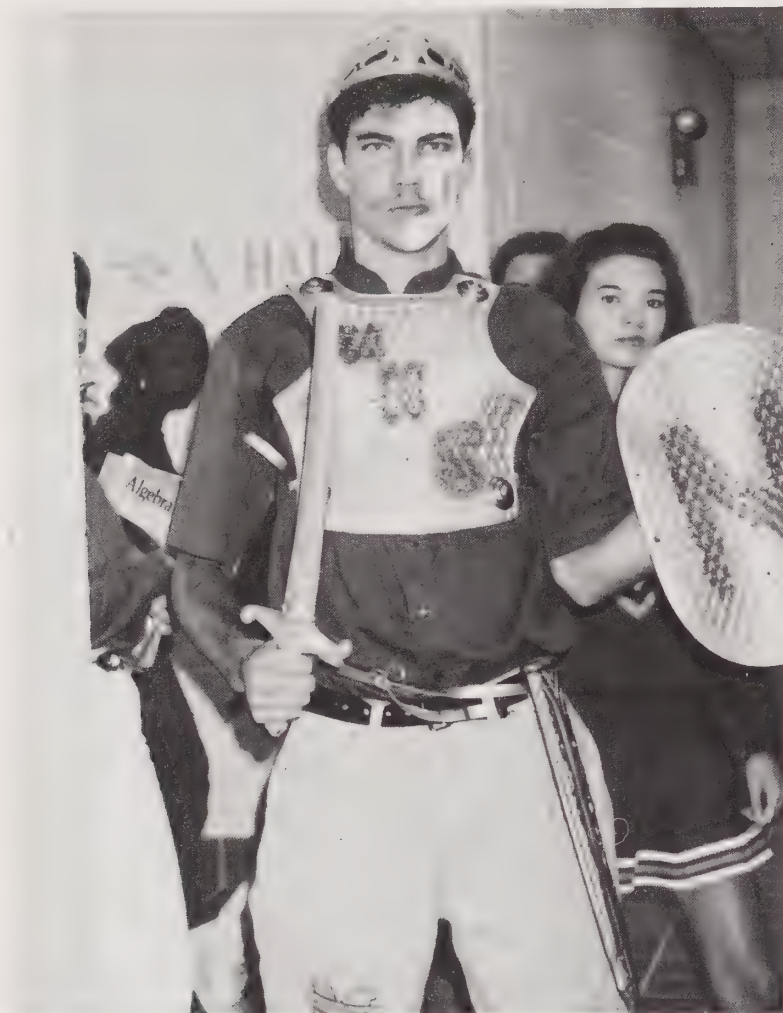

What story could James be telling now? Lunch time provided the Knights with a chance to share their day's activities with friends.

The school mascot, Jon Hoffman, helped spread school spirit during North's first year.

North's band provided entertainment and boosted school spirit at the football games.

Scream for the team you love best! These Knight fans were always supporting North's teams.

Good Knight

To a Great Beginning

New friends, teams, traditions, coaches, teachers, facilities, and classes combined with some familiar faces . . . NORTH HENDERSON HIGH SCHOOL. The Student Body, faculty, administration and community worked together to provide an excellent beginning for NORTH HENDERSON HIGH SCHOOL. Knight Life gave Knights and Nobles the opportunity to enjoy Knight Games and to be involved in Knight Clubs and Classes. While North Seniors sadly say "Goodbye", North faculty and underclassmen say "Good Knight" to a great beginning.

The North Henderson Cross Country team is one example of the good start North experienced. Dustin Smith, Doug Barnwell, and Jonathan Waters were among the first athletes to claim victories for North.

Jennifer Jankowski takes a break from playing the bass clarinet to share good time with a friend.

Micha Sherrill dances the night away after a North football game. Though few in number, North's dances were always a big success.

The first Spirit week at North Henderson will never be forgotten. These Knights decided they didn't need a sledge hammer to bash the car.

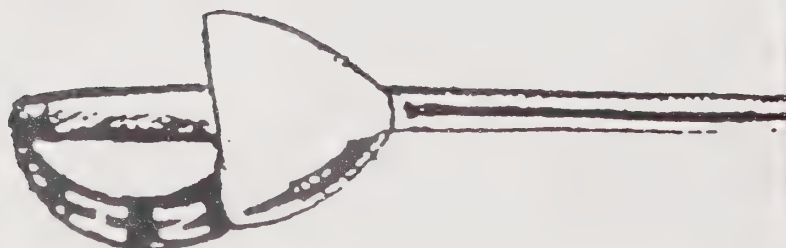

KNIGHTLY NEWS

During his break from carving, Matt Carter looks like he's enjoying the tasty pumpkin pulp. Student work and cooperation were two important factors in the success of North Henderson's first year.

Teachers like Mr. Orr were a fine example of the faculty who kept North Henderson running smoothly. Mr. Orr not only supported the sports teams, but he also was a major factor in the work on the Constitution for the Knights.

Learn The Three R's.

Natural Gas is the Reasonable, Reliable and Responsible energy choice. It's reasonably priced, always reliable and environmentally responsible. Whether you're heating a home, supplying hot water or providing energy to a business, natural gas is the smart energy source. Learning the three R's will pay off for you now and in the future. For more information, call your local Public Service Company of North Carolina, Inc. office.

• Theme: The Excalibur staff selected the "U-Knighted" theme because of the new North Henderson High School began its very first year enrolling students from more than five different schools. Adding the Knight, our school mascot, to the desire for our school to become united, we derived our theme, U-Knighted.

• Cover: The cover design applied an "Old Gold Metalay over a royal purple leather cover board using a "Crush" grain base finishing with a black rub overtone.

• Printing: The First Edition of Excalibur was printed by Herff Jones Yearbook Company in Montgomery, Alabama, using off set lithography. Press run was 500 copies with a 9 x 12 trim size. The contents were printed on an 80 lb. Bordeaux Special gloss paper stock. Body copy and captions were set in Spartan Medium in 12 pt. and 8 pt.
